This is an application under s. 99(e) of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 47 (the Act) for an Order exempting Newsco Investments Limited (Newsco) from the obligation imposed under s. 91(1) of the Act to make a "follow-up offer" to the remaining holders of the common shares of Ronalds-Federated Limited (Ronalds). On April 22, 1980 Newsco agreed to purchase from F.P. Publications Limited (F.P.) 645,425 common shares of Ronalds, representing 51.6% of the outstanding common shares. The agreed purchase price was $30 per share, which price exceeded the "market price" of the Ronalds shares on April 22nd as that term is used in s. 91(1) and defined in s. 162(3) of the Regulations of the Act. As a result, Newsco was obligated under s. 91(1) to make a follow-up offer to the remaining holders of common shares of Ronalds within 180 days of the date of its purchase from F.P.

The background to the Newsco/F.P. agreement of April 22nd is that prior to that date 51.6% of the common shares of Ronalds were owned by F.P. F.P. was, prior to February of 1980, a closely-held company owned in approximately equal shares by four separate interests (a fifth interest owned 7 1/2%), one of which interests was Newsco which owned 22 1.2%. In February of 1980 Thomson Newspapers Limited (Thomson) purchased the outstanding securities of F.P. with the exception of Newsco's 22 1/2% holding. According to testimony by William R. Ferguson (Ferguson), the Secretary-Treasurer of Newsco, discussions began in the latter part of March between representatives of Newsco and representatives of Thomson with respect to the purchase of Newsco's 22 1.2% holding in F.P. on the basis that assets owned either by F.P. or Thomson would form part of the transaction. Ferguson testified that the possibility of Newsco acquiring the Ronalds shares held by F.P. was first brought up by a Thomson representative early in April and that some time in the second week of April the Thomson representative set a price of $30 a share for the Ronalds shares held by F.P. On that basis, Thomson purchased Newsco's 22 1.2% interest in F.P. and Newsco purchased F.P.'s 51.6% interest in Ronalds, being 645,425 shares at $30 per share.

R.E. Morrow, Q.C., Montreal counsel to Newsco, testified that the $30 price for the Ronalds shares was dictated by Thomson and was not a matter of bargain. He further testified that the dollar content of the Thomson offer for the F.P. shares held by Newsco was the same as originally offered by Thomson in February at the time of its original purchase of the F.P. shares.

The Act breaks new ground in North America in requiring an offeror who has acquired control by way of a private agreement at a premium above the statutorily defined market price to make an equivalent follow-up offer to the remaining shareholders. The subject of control block premiums has been a matter of debate in Ontario at least since the 1965 Report of the Attorney-General's Committee on Securities Legislation in Ontario (the Kimber Report). It is not intended here to recite the history of takeover bid legislation in Ontario or the equities of control block premiums. That history and the pros and cons of control block premiums are fully set out in a paper published on February 22, 1979 by this Commission as part of an exposure draft of a policy statement dealing with applications for exemption from the obligation to make a follow-up offer pursuant to s. 91(1). Suffice it to say that it was recognized that there would be a need for exemptions from the hard and fast rule that any transaction involving an excess control block premium must be followed within 180 days by an offer for all of the remaining shares at the same price. Accordingly, the Commission was given the power, in s. 99(e) of the Act, to exempt a purchaser from that obligation where it concluded that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so.

When the Act was being reviewed by the Administration of Justice Committee of the Ontario Legislature the then Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations stated that he had instructed the Commission to prepare draft guidelines indicating the basis on which the OSC's discretion would be exercised. Such a discretion to exempt was considered necessary to, in the words of the Minister, "...retain maximum flexibility in order not to impose an unnecessary restraint on dealings in control blocks" while at the same time maintaining in the Act the principle "...that it is prejudicial to the credibility of the public marketplace to permit the owner of a corporation who has taken in minority shareholders to dispose of his shares subsequently at a premium that is unavailable to the minority."

The Commission's mandate has been carried out in Policy 3-41 and it is on the terms of that policy through the exempting power granted to the Commission in s. 99(e) that the applicant relies.

Under s. 91(1) of the Act, where the exemption in clause (c) of s. 88(2) (the private agreement with fewer than 15 security holders) has been relied upon, a follow-up offer is required only if there is a published market in the class of securities acquired and the value of the consideration paid for any such securities exceeds the defined market price at the date of the relevant agreement plus reasonable brokerage fees. In this case there is a published market in the class of securities acquired as Ronalds is listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the TSE), as well as the Montreal Stock Exchange. The relevant agreement is the agreement by Newsco to purchase 51.6% of the outstanding common shares of Ronalds from F.P. and the relevant date is the date of that agreement, April 22, 1980. Market price, as that term is used in s. 91(1), is defined by s. 162(3) of the Regulations, is stated to be an amount 15% in excess of the simple average of the closing price of securities of that class for each day on which there was a closing price and falling not more than ten business days before the relevant date. Thus, as defined, the term includes an "allowable" control block premium and amounts in excess of that constitute what might be termed an "excess premium." Using the TSE trading summary in Ronalds for the month of April, the defined market price was determined by Newsco as follows:

"April	9	$25
	15	26
	16	25 1/2
	17	25
	18	25

Simple Average = $152.5 \div 6 = $25.41666$

15% in excess $25.41666 \times 1.15 = 29.22917$
 Therefore the "market price" is $29.22917."

(It should be noted that the computation of the market price by Newsco was wrong. Newsco took the closing price on the 6 of the 10 days on which there was trading and did its averaging computation. It should have taken the prices for all 10 days as s. 162(1) states that on a day in which there are no transactions (other than those noted in s. 162(1)(a) and (b)) but on which closing bid and ask prices were published, the closing price is the average of such bid and ask prices. A correct computation would have lowered the defined market price and increased the excessive premium. Nothing in our decision turns on this fact, but the proper method of computation should be noted.)

To the market price of $29.22 Newsco then added "reasonable brokerage fees or other commissions" as permitted by s. 91(1). This was done by attributing the maximum commission applicable on a retail trade at the market price as defined. We agree with the submission of counsel for TSE that this is not an appropriate way to calculate the brokerage fees or other commissions referred to in s. 91(1). The sense of that section is that only brokerage fees or commissions that are actually paid are to be included in calculating the price. In a case such as this where no such fees or commissions are paid as part of the private agreement, there should not be a notional calculation of what such fees would be if the transaction had taken place on the TSE. Thus the market price would be $29.22 for a differential or "excessive premium" of 78¢ being the difference between the defined market price of $29.22 and the $30 per share paid by Newsco for each Ronalds share owned by F.P.

The fact of an excessive premium, however small, required Newsco to make a follow-up offer to the remaining shareholders of Ronalds or to seek an exemption from so doing from the OSC. Representatives from Newsco appeared before the Commission on May 1st, 1980 and indicated that they would be seeking an exemption and sought instructions as to appropriate notice. Given the relatively small number of shareholders, 618, and the fact that they were distributed among eight provinces, as well as a small number being outside of Canada, the Commission directed that notice be sent by mail to each shareholder by May 7th, 1980 for a hearing on the exemption application to be held on May 21st. Copies of the application and supporting material were made available to shareholders at Ronalds' offices in Montreal as well as at the Commission's offices by May 7th. We note for future guidance that notice by mail to individual shareholders will not be required in all cases but that the matter is very much a question of the size of the company, the publicity attendant upon the particular transaction, the number of shareholders and their geographical location. We would note in this connection that in the proposed sale by IU International Corporation of its control block in Canadian Utilities Limited to Atco Limited, the Commission directed notice by advertisement in major Canadian newspapers across the country.

The first argument for exemption by Newsco is based upon s. 99(a) which provides that the Commission may exempt from the follow-up obligation where it finds that "...the offeror will not or did not acquire through the offer the power or authority to control the business or affairs of the offeree company." The argument was that Newsco did not acquire the power to control the affairs of Ronalds through its purchase of 51.6% of Ronalds' shares as it already held that power through its joint control of F.P. at the time that F.P. owned 51.6% of Ronalds common shares. As noted above, four interests, including Newsco, prior to February, 1980, owned approximately 23% each of F.P. and a fifth interest owned some 7 1/2%. The submission was that as Newsco was one of a small group of owners of the shares of F.P., it participated equally in the control of that company and through it, in the control of Ronalds. It was further submitted that there was no agreement or arrangement respecting the voting of the shares of F.P. by its shareholders and that therefore no one shareholder was in a position to control the business affairs of F.P. Thus the submission was that "as respects the control exercised by F.P. over the issuer Ronalds they may be considered to have been, in effect, associated, and therefore all members of a control group." The result, it was argued, was that Newsco, by virtue of the purchase of the shares of Ronalds from F.P., was not truly acquiring control of Ronalds. The testimony of Ferguson was that Newsco had not in the past taken any direct interest in the management of Ronalds but he did note that the President of Ronalds is a director of Newsco. He further stated that since Newsco's purchase of the Ronalds shares, Newsco has placed two directors on that company's Board.

We do not accept this submission and are of the opinion that Newsco did acquire control of Ronalds through its purchase of the Ronalds shares from F.P. There is a world of difference in terms of "the power or authority to control the business or affairs of the offeree company" in directly owning 51.6% of the common shares of that company, and between owning 22 1/2% of a company that owns 51.6% of the company said to be controlled. That indirect control works out to 11.6%. While it is true that Newsco was one of a small group of shareholders that controlled F.P. and that F.P. controlled Ronalds, we do not think that that put Newsco in a position such that it could be said that it had "the power or authority to control the business or affairs of the offeree company" as that concept is stated in s. 99(a). It should be noted with respect to the question of control, that Policy Statement 3-41 indicates that "substantial weight will be given as to whether the offeror will, as a consequence of the private agreement transactions, acquire the practical authority to nominate a majority of the Directors."

The second and principal limb of Newsco's application for exemption rests on the general exemption power contained in s. 99(e) which gives the Commission the power to exempt from any of the requirements of Part XIX of the Act where "in its opinion it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so." The invocation of s. 99(e) brings into play Policy 3-41 as that Policy was formulated to give guidance as to when and on what basis the Commission would be prepared to exercise its discretion to exempt from the requirement of a follow-up offer. Policy 3-41 sets out three circumstances which it is stated militate against granting an exemption. These are:

- (a) A sale of control where the result is clearly unfair or abusive to the remaining shareholders;
- (b) The sale of control follows a public distribution of equity securities of the same corporation (whether newly issued or derived from the control block) in which it may reasonably be assumed that investors relied on continued involvement of the controlling shareholder in the corporation's affairs, and the sale of control occurs within, say, ten years after the public distribution; or
- (c) The offeror proposes obtaining effective control at a premium through purchases from fewer than fifteen shareholders, none of whom individually has effective control, at a premium unavailable to the remaining shareholders.

The policy statement then goes on to state that if the sale of control does not fall within any of the above three circumstances, "the Commission anticipates that it will be favourably disposed to granting an exemption...unless other circumstances indicate that the exemption would be contrary to the public interest." Newsco submits that it is not within any of the three circumstances as noted, and further submits that there are no other circumstances that would make it contrary to the public interest to grant the exemption requested. We agree that circumstances (b) and (c) are not applicable, which leaves us to deal with circumstance (a) which asks the general question of whether the result of the sale of control "is clearly unfair or abusive to the remaining shareholders." The concept of fairness is an elusive one and, like beauty, may dwell in the eye of the beholder, or, in this case, in the pocketbook of the shareholder. It is, however, incumbent upon this Commission to indicate in some detail those circumstances which it regards as resulting in unfair treatment of the remaining shareholders if that is its opinion. It is only through the detailing of such circumstances that the business community will have some guidance as to the factors that the Commission will take into account in making a determination under circumstance (a).

Newsco submits that the sale of control is clearly not unfair to the remaining shareholders because of the "insignificant amount" of the excessive premium paid. The argument is that the provisions contained in s. 91(1) and in s. 162(3) of the Regulations allow a control block premium that is 15% above the actual market price of the security in the ten days immediately preceding the agreement to purchase. The statutorily defined "market price", which includes the allowable premium of 15%, in this case gives a price which is only 78¢ per share below the actual price paid. In aggregate terms, 78¢ translates into $183,946.12 out of a total purchase price of $19,362.750.00 or some 0.95% of the purchase price. It is argued that this is not a significant enough figure to be considered as an excessive control block premium and that there is no unfairness to the remaining shareholders in such an insignificant amount either per share or in aggregate being paid, in addition to the allowable 15% premium, for control.

It must be noted at the outset that the question is not one of the amount of the excess premium paid over the market price. It is true that if the price that one pays is within the defined market price then there is no obligation to make a follow-up offer. It is equally true, however, that once one pays a price that exceeds the market price, regardless of how small that excess is, a follow-up offer is required. If an exemption is sought the Commission is free to examine the entire background of the transaction, relatively recent corporate history, all transactions in the offeree company's securities, the liquidity of the market, and any other matters that it deems relevant to the exercise of its jurisdiction. To concentrate on the size of the premium paid once the price paid exceeds the defined market price as being the most relevant factor in seeking an exemption is to start from the wrong premise.

Once an excess premium is paid a follow-up offer is mandated. It is true that subject to the three circumstances noted above, Policy 3-41 speaks in relatively broad terms of the exemption-granting power. It is equally true, however, that Policy 3-41 emphasizes that "the bias in good commercial practice is in favour of making...a follow-up offer." Indeed, the Policy goes on to state that where control is acquired through the private agreement exemption, it is anticipated that a follow-up offer will be made even though some or all of the conditions triggering the obligation in section 91(1) are not present. Thus the starting point is an expectation, and if s. 91(1) applies, a legal requirement of a follow-up offer. The Commission may only grant an exemption where it is satisfied that "...it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so." Thus in deciding whether or not an exemption should be granted, all the relevant circumstances are open for investigation. This is particularly true if there is any question as to whether or not the result of the sale of control is unfair to the remaining shareholders. We do not intend by these reasons to dilute the importance to an applicant of a finding that sale of control falls within none of the three circumstances in Policy 3-41 noted above, but we do wish to emphasize that the Policy clearly states that such a favourable finding may not result in an exemption if "...other circumstances indicate that the exemption would be contrary to the public interest." This, of course, is a re-statement in the Policy of the statutory obligation imposed on the Commission under s. 99(e).

Particularly relevant circumstances to be considered in this case are as follows. F.P. moved its control position in Ronalds to 51.6% in May, 1979, less than 12 months prior to the resale by an offer to purchase 227,000 shares of Ronalds at $20.50 per share through the facilities of the TSE and the Montreal Stock Exchange. The bid was over-subscribed and an 85% pro-rated take-up resulted. It will be noted that the price paid by Newsco for the control block of Ronalds held by F.P. is 50% higher than the bid through the stock exchanges of less than one year ago. It is true that the purchase at $20.50 and resale one year later at $30.00 by F.P. cannot of itself be construed as being unfair to the remaining shareholders of Ronalds, but it is an important factor as to how the shareholders of Ronalds have been treated and it does reflect on the equitable treatment of shareholders in the capital market generally - a factor of which this Commission must take special cognizance.

Another important factor is that there are relative few shares of Ronalds outstanding and it is a very thinly traded stock. The excess premium of 78¢ that Newsco emphasized in its application to the Commission takes on a somewhat different character when one looks at the volume of trading in 1979 and in the first four months of 1980 and the price ranges involved in that trading. In 1979 the TSE reported that 253,370 shares of Ronalds traded within a price range of $16 7/8 to $21 1/2. The volume of 253,370 shares must be seen, however, in the context of the F.P. bid through the TSE for 227,000 shares, which bid was successful. When one deducts the 227,000 shares actually purchased through the bid from the total traded of 253,370 shares one sees that the normal trading through the auction market on the TSE in 1979 was 26,370 shares. One also notes that based on 1979 prices the dollar difference between the low and the high and the Newsco purchase price of $30.00 is $13.00 and $8.50 or a premium of about 75% and just under 40% respectively.

The 1980 trading, to March 31, was 14,700 shares within a range of $20.00 - $25.00. In April, 2,675 shares traded within a $24.50 - $26.00 range. It should also be noted that the shares traded as low as $20.00 in January. Some idea of the volume of trading is revealed by the fact that in April there were ten transactions, in March there were 25 transactions and in February there were twelve transactions. It will be noted that the difference between the January low and the Newsco purchase price is $10.00 or a 50% premium. The premiums between the Newsco purchase price and the low and high trading prices in March of $22.25 and $25.00 are 35% and 20% respectively, and over the February low and high of $23.00 and $24.00 are of approximately the same magnitude. For April, the month in which the Newsco transaction took place, there were ten transactions for the entire month with a volume of 2,675 shares. The high and low trading prices in April were $24.50 and $26.00 with the last trade taking place at $25.00. Once again there is a premium of approximately 20% over the approximate average April trading price of $25.00 being paid by Newsco in its $30.00 purchase price for the Ronalds shares.

The trading pattern for May is equally revealing. To May 20th there had been three transactions with a total volume of 400 shares. The trading price in each case was $27.00 although by May 20th the bid had slipped to $23.00 and the ask to $26.50. Thus the picture that is revealed is of a stock with a relatively small float that is thinly traded with a purchase price of $30.00 representing a 50% premium over the price as recently as January and 50% over the price at which F.P. increased its control through a purchase on the TSE some twelve months ago. Moreover, $30.00 is seen to be a premium varying from 35% to 20% in recent months and weeks. Since the Newsco purchase, trading has reduced even further and the price appears to be heading down from its April closing levels.

These circumstances indicate to us that the purchase price of $30.00, when examined in the context of the reality of the trading in Ronalds stock, represents a very real premium to F.P. over what is available to the remaining shareholders. The thinness of the trading and the substantial real premium that $30.00 represents over actual trading prices in the very recent past indicates to us that the result is clearly unfair to the remaining shareholders as that term is used in circumstance (a) of Policy 3-41 quoted above. There is very little likelihood that the remaining shareholders would be able to dispose of their shares over any reasonable period of time at prices anywhere approaching $30.00. For these reasons, we are not satisfied that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to grant an exemption from s. 91(1). Accordingly, the application is denied and Newsco must proceed to make a follow-up offer within 180 days of April 22nd to purchase all of the additional securities of the same class owned by Ronalds shareholders at and for a consideration per share at least equal in value to the greatest consideration paid under its agreement with F.P. as is provided by s. 91(1) of the Act.

We would emphasize that this case, as will all applications for exemption under s. 99(e), depends very much upon its special facts. The special facts in this application have been noted above and relate particularly to the very recent trading history, the relatively small float of Ronalds shares, the consequent thinness of the actual trading, the substantial premium that $30.00 represents over the trading price in the very recent past, and the price at which F.P. increased its control position through the TSE as recently as twelve months ago.

It was remarked that if the Newsco purchase had been for 78¢ less it would not be required to make a follow-up offer that will cost it some $18,000,000 notwithstanding that the remaining shareholders would be in exactly the same position as noted above but without any relief such as we are now granting. This is quite true, but it only illustrates that a general Policy Statement such as 3-41, and a definition of market price such as is attempted by s. 162(3) of the Regulations, cannot cover all possible situations. Experience may dictate that amendments to the Act, the regulations and the Policy Statement will be necessary to take account of the realities of the marketplace and to insure that equity is done as between shareholders. In accordance with the Commission's practice, before any such changes are made they will be exposed for public comment and discussion.

I concur with the disposition of this matter denying the application but am not able to agree with the interpretation given to the phrase "plus reasonable brokerage fees or commissions" in s.91(1). In this case as in another recent case the difference between the defined market price and the price actually paid is quite small. A situation could arise in which the addition of an amount in respect of a reasonable brokerage fee or commission could be the determining factor as to the application of the section. In the present case this factor was not vital to the applicant's position on its own calculations and the Commission was not required to express an opinion on the meaning of the statutory language. Had the point been significant I would have held that because a price paid in a market transaction ordinarily would have been increased by a brokerage fee or commission it was the intent of the statute that the statutory market price was to be calculated on the same basis.

This is an application made by The Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSE") pursuant to section 19 of The Commodity Futures Act, S.O. 1978, c. 48 (the "Act"), for registration as a commodity futures exchange. The application, as originally framed, was dated May 20th, 1980. The application was opposed in specific respects by Friedberg Mercantile Group ("Friedberg") and ContiCommodity Service (Canada) Ltd. ("Conti"), dealers registered as futures commission merchants ("fcms") under the Act who are not members of the TSE. .

At the conclusion of the first day's hearing after the completion of argument the Commission reserved its decision. After reviewing the application, the supporting material and the submissions of Counsel the Commission concluded that it was satisfied that the proposal satisfied the specific points required to be addressed by subsection 2 of section 19 of the Act. However, there were specific matters, outlined below, which appeared contrary to the public interest.

The original Commission panel reconvened on June 12th and discussed its concerns with counsel to all parties, hearing additional submission from the intervenants. The TSE indicated that it would have difficulty responding to some of the points raised. However, upon being given time for further reflection on Monday, June 16th, 1980, it filed an amendment to its original application designed, within a reasonable time frame, to address the questions raised by both the Commission and the intervenants during the June 12th meeting. In view of the public conjecture about the application it was decided to press forward with the hearing of the application with four of the original six commissioners, Messrs. Bray, Morgan, Cockburn and Thom, on the same day notwithstanding the inability to contact Commissioners Simonton and Miles on short notice the previous Friday. The four members represent a quorum of the Commission. A further meeting with counsel took place on June 16th with further submissions being made by the intervenants about the amended application.

The application states what for convenience may be styled the "commodities futures division" of the TSE was structured after studies which commenced early in 1979. The TSE concluded that it would be appropriate to permit trading through its facilities in contracts for future delivery of 91-Day Government of Canada Treasury Bills and 18-Year Government of Canada Bonds (financial futures). The terms of the proposed financial futures contracts are detailed in the application. Such contracts are proposed to be cleared through and performance thereof would become the responsibility of Trans Canada Options Inc. ("TCO"), a corporation owned equally by the TSE and the Montreal Stock Exchange ("MSE"). We were informed that it is proposed that interchangeable financial futures contracts will be traded through a parallel financial futures facility being created by the MSE. These MSE contracts will also be cleared and guaranteed by TCO.

Undergirding the application were the detailed by-law and other amendments necessary to meet the requirements of section 19(2) of the Act. These are directed to ensuring:

- (a) the clearing and other arrangements made and the financial condition of the commodity futures exchange, its clearing house and its members will be such as to provide reasonable assurance that all obligations arising out of contracts entered into on such commodity futures exchange will be met;
- (b) the rules and regulations applicable to exchange members and clearing house members are in the public interest and will be actively enforced;
- (c) floor trading practices will be fair and properly supervised;
- (d) adequate measures will be taken to prevent manipulation and excessive speculation; and
- (e) adequate provision will be made to record and publish details of trading including volume and open interest.

While counsel to Conti questioned the economic viability of the commodity futures division absent the full participation of Friedberg and Conti, no one raised any substantive questions as to the detail of proposed trading and clearing mechanisms. Indeed, most of our regulatory concerns were addressed as nearly as they can be, absent actual trading experience, by the detailed information supplied to us. The Chairman of the Commodity Futures Advisory Board and Staff Counsel attended upon senior officials of the Bank of Canada and the federal Department of Finance to be assured that they had no concerns they wished to communicate before the Commission registered a financial futures market based upon such important Government of Canada financial instruments.

After the first day's hearing, the Commission unanimously was of the opinion that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to permit the commodity futures division to institute trading in financial futures contracts based on the defined classes of Canadian government securities set out in the application, cleared and guaranteed as to performance through TCO. The submissions of the intervenants had focussed on two areas with which the Commission had some sympathy. These were, in the language of the June 16th amendment,

1. the admission of non-members fcms into the commodity futures trading, clearing and governance functions; and
2. the proposed restrictions on the admission of non-resident controlled fcms.

The TSE proposed that non-members fcms be granted the privilege of trading in the commodity futures division but that they not be eligible for membership in the TSE on any basis nor would they be eligible under any circumstances, short of stock exchange membership, for clearing membership in TCO. In addition, it was proposed that foreign ownership restrictions similar to those in The Securities Act regulations should apply. This would eliminate Conti from any direct participation in the new exchange.

In addition to the questions, raised on behalf of Friedberg and Conti during the first day's hearing, the Commission had three additional questions of its own. The first related to the self-regulatory role of the TSE. Under the proposal the TSE assumed no responsibility for the non-member fcms trading on the new exchange. The non-member would be forced to enter a clearing arrangement with a TCO clearing member. That clearing member in turn would be responsible to TCO for the non-member fcms' trading. The second question was regarding the need for minimum fixed commission rates. The third centred on the possibility of protection for the public clients of non-member fcms similar to that provided for both the commodity futures and securities clients of member firms through the National Contingency Fund ("NCF").

Interwoven in this application was a request made by Counsel to Friedberg, supported by Counsel to Conti, that the Commission should reconsider the recognition given to the TSE as a self-regulatory body by Order dated September 1st, 1979, pursuant to section 15 of the Act. This matter was referred to in Staff Counsel's written submissions. The Order stated that the self-regulatory status was "subject to review and reconsideration on the earlier of the 3rd day of March, 1980 or that day on which public trading commences in commodity futures contracts on a market organized and established by the Exchange". The Commission was then aware that the present application would be coming forward in due course. The question of full membership for all qualified fcms in an appropriate self-regulatory body, the issue underlying but not spelled out in that condition, is dealt with in the result through this application. The Commission is satisfied as to the TSE's ability, in specific terms, to set standards and to enforce them on their members. The conclusions reached in this application will provide a similar self-regulatory umbrella for fcms who, because their activity is confined to commodity futures trading, do not qualify for membership in any self-regulatory securities body such as a stock exchange.

Having reached these tentative conclusions following the June 11th meetings the original Commission panel met with counsel for all parties on June 12th, 1980, and advised them that the Commission was prepared to grant registration if the TSE was prepared to modify its application to meet a number of concerns. They were explained to the participants in the following way:

1. Despite strong representations to the contrary the Government accepted the proposition that non-resident ownership restrictions are inappropriate for fcms. The Commission requested that any reference to them be deleted from the proposed by-laws, policies or other conditions attaching to approval for trading in the futures market or ultimately to clearing members.

2. The TSE had already recognized the need for special regulation for those of its members who are also fcms through appropriate amendments to its by-laws and policies, in particular By-Laws XXIV and XXV, and the imposition of special reporting and monitoring procedures through its application under section 15 of the Act for recognition as a self-regulatory body and under section 46(6) for an exemption for its members from the segregation of clients' funds requirement of section 46(1) of the Act. These applications recognized the distinction between securities trading and commodity futures trading. With the proposal for a commodity futures exchange in Ontario, the Commission concluded that it was an appropriate time to crystallize the distinction between the two classes of activities over which the TSE proposed to exercise an even more extended role through the commodities future exchange it is sponsoring. The Commission accepts the submissions of the intervenants that provision must be made on an equal footing for firms which act exclusively as fcms. Wide participation by qualified fcms is in the public interest lending liquidity to the proposed market. The Commission requested the applicant to consider providing the following:

- (a) a form of membership which would enable all qualified fcms, regardless of foreign ownership interests, to have equal access and standing in the commodity futures division of the TSE with that proposed for TSE members who are also fcms;
- (b) access should be provided to the commodity futures division for all qualified applicants for membership in that division on fair and reasonable terms as to cost and other conditions;
- (c) qualified non-broker fcm members of the commodity futures division should also be eligible for clearing membership for commodity futures contracts in TCO, subject to such terms and conditions as must be met by TSE member-broker firms;

- (d) provision should be made for the non-broker firm members to participate in the decision making process relating to the commodity futures division so far as proposed changes in by-laws, regulations and policies relating to the activities in this division are concerned;
- (e) the non-broker firm members should be subject to the appropriate self-regulatory controls of the TSE in accordance with Commission policy in support of responsible self-regulation;
- (f) some mechanism should be explored, either through NCF or some other mechanism, which through contributions from both non-broker and broker firms would provide some protection for their public commodity future clients similar to the protections for securities clients for which NCF was instituted.

3. The Commission, while it expressed reservations about the proposed minimum fixed rate commissions, were prepared to accept that part of the By-Laws provided the by-law terminated by December 31st, 1981, at which time commission rate structure for commodities futures contract trading would, as in the United States and the Winnipeg Commodities Exchange, become unregulated.

Counsel to the intervenants again emphasized their desire to be fully participating and equal members in both the proposed commodity futures exchange and the clearing corporation. Counsel to the applicant expressed concern about the scope of the Commission's requests and indicated that the TSE saw difficulties in implementing the suggestions which might result in the TSE withdrawing the application. Without rendering a decision on the original application, the Commission adjourned to provide the applicant with an opportunity to further consider the problems raised. Upon reflection, and discussion with Counsel to the Commission and the intervenants, the TSE filed the amendments to the original application dated June 16th, 1980. As noted above, four members of the original panel were able to meet with Counsel on that date to render the decision which was subsequently communicated to all parties.

It was apparent that so far as clearing membership in TSO and any restructuring of NCF is concerned, the TSE needed to consult with the MSE concerning TCO and so far as NCF is concerned with all of the major Canadian stock exchanges and the Investment Dealers Association of Canada. This procedure must take time. However, the applicant undertook, through its amended application, to meet the points raised by the intervenants and the Commission on or before May 31st, 1981, as follows:

1. It will request the Government of Ontario to introduce a Special Act into the Legislature, containing such terms as are necessary or advisable, to create a TSE sponsored commodity futures exchange which will replace the commodity futures division it requested be registered during the interim period.
2. The ancilliary mechanisms necessary for trading, clearing and regulating the commodity futures contracts permitted to trade through such an exchange will be established. It proposed pursuing a continuing relationship with TCO for clearing. During the interim period qualified non-broker fcms will be granted trading status in the commodities futures division of the TSE on fair and reasonable terms as to costs and other conditions but they will not be eligible for clearing membership in TCO.
3. Qualified fcms who are not broker-members of the TSE will be eligible for full membership in the new commodity futures exchange, to participate equally with all other members in its governance, and to become clearing members of the clearing corporation.
4. At the time the new exchange is registered all members will be subject to the self-regulatory controls imposed by the new exchange. It is anticipated that the exchange will apply for self-regulatory status under section 15 of the Act and that the regulatory staff will be supplied under contract from the TSE, at least during the start-up period. Until the new exchange is registered and recognized, non-TSE fcms will remain subject to the Commission's direct regulatory jurisdiction.

5. Ancilliary to the registration of the new commodities exchange, the applicant proposes establishing a contingency fund separate from the NCF which now exists primarily for the benefit of the securities clients of brokers and investment dealers across Canada. The new fund, which might be established under the NCF organization's sponsorship, would be directed to protection for the commodity futures clients of the members of the new exchange. During the interim period non-broker fcms will remain subject to the segregation requirements of section 46.

In addition, the applicant will not seek to impose Canadian ownership requirements upon fcms seeking to participate in either the proposed commodities futures division of the TSE or the commodity futures exchange and its clearing corporation. The minimum commission rates found in Part V 3(v) of the proposed General By-Law (page 15 of the May 20th Application) will be revised to terminate on December 31st, 1981. The rates of commission charged by one participant in the commodity futures exchange to another participant will not be fixed.

The intervenants indicated concern at the lack of interest shown by the TSE as to their views prior to the date of the hearing. They were also concerned that they might become "second class citizens" in the proposed structure. While the latter may to some extent be so during the interim period, the TSE has undertaken that it will not be the case in the final solution proposed. To further underscore the good faith with which the TSE is proceeding the applicant, on page 4 of the amendment, has undertaken as follows:

"In determining how best to implement this proposal the Exchange will solicit the comments and assistance of persons who may be interested in participating as dealers in the market."

We were advised by Counsel to Friedberg that in recent discussions with senior officers of the TSE he had been advised that both Conti and Friedberg would be invited to become members of the TSE Committee to be struck to develop the Act, by-laws, regulations and policies which will govern the new exchange. Although we were urged during the June 16th meeting to do so since the TSE is the sponsor of the new exchange we do not find it necessary to direct them as to how they should implement the consultative procedure they have offered. If the non-member firms work to the resolution of the problems with the same goodwill exhibited by the applicant through the amended application, there appears to be no good reason why the new exchange should not be established and the self-regulatory machinery in place within the time undertaken suggested by the applicant.

Accordingly, subject to the terms and conditions outlined above and flowing from the application as amended, the Commission granted registration to the TSE as a commodities futures exchange restricted to trading in the classes of financial futures contracts proposed in the application. This registration will terminate by the earlier of May 31st, 1981, or a date six months after the proclamation in force of a Special Act of the Legislature creating a separate TSE sponsored commodities futures exchange, or the day before which registration of such new TSE sponsored commodity futures exchange becomes effective.

This was an application brought on behalf of Mr. Irwin Singer and nine other persons for a ruling under section 73 of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 47 (the "Act"), that the sale and transfer to these individuals of 1,108,000 shares (28.1%) of Israel Continental Oil Company Ltd. ("IC") from International Mogul Mines Ltd. ("IM") would not be subject to the registration or prospectus requirements of sections 24 or 52 of the Act. IC is an Ontario reporting issuer which is currently in compliance with all of the continuous disclosure requirements under the Act and the Ontario Business Corporations Act. Its issued capital is 3,950,007 shares.

IC is a dormant company. Effective control has rested with IM through IM's holdings of 34.3% of IC's issued shares. IM agreed to sell all but 250,000 of its shares to Mr. Singer and his group for total consideration of $125,000. Of the 1,108,000 shares, Irwin Singer is to receive 808,000 shares for $5,000. The remaining 300,000 shares are being paid for by his nine associates at .40 cents per share. The application explains that Mr. Singer will become President of IC, obtain an interest for IC in an "attractive oil and gas play and at the same time undertake financing to raise substantial sums for (IC's) treasury".

IC has been inactive for some period of time. The other nine applicants have been associated with Mr. Singer in similar ventures. We were satisfied that they did not need the protection of the Act. We are concerned, however, about the opportunity presented, when section 71(7) comes fully into force on March 15, 1981, for this control group to make a secondary distribution of their shares without the necessary review and disclosure that a prospectus filing gives.

In October, 1979, the Commission in connection with a similar application by Mr. Singer and an associated group who wished to purchase 1,500,000 shares of Delhi Pacific Mines Ltd. from IC granted the order requested on condition that the associated group could sell none of their shares before March 15, 1981, unless a further ruling was obtained under section 73, and that they should not distribute any of their shares on or after March 15, 1981, excepting in accordance with subsection 7 of section 71 of the Act as if subsection 7 of section 71 were applicable to the distribution. We were urged to follow this precedent. Our experience over the intervening months has led us to conclude that in situations such as the present one, where effective control of an inactive company is being purchased for a relatively nominal price, in this case an average 11.2 cents per share and substantially less for Mr. Singer, their resale should only be permitted through a prospectus rather than through section 71(7) when it comes into force next March. This view was reinforced by the evidence of our market analyst, Mr. T. Petroff, who noted that interest in the IC shares appeared in the over-the-counter market only after news of the proposed Singer deal was announced. On the evidence submitted to us on behalf of Mr. Singer the trading range of IC in the past ninety days has been a high of .80 and a low of .45 with the last trade on June 4, 1980, being at .57.

The order therefore issued permitting the sale by IM to Mr. Singer and the named associates of the numbers of IC shares applied for subject to a prohibition against any resale of these shares by any member of the group other than through a prospectus filed in accordance with section 52 of the Act or through an exemption granted under section 73. This ruling will remain in effect notwithstanding the coming into force of section 71(7) on March 15, 1981.

It was a further condition of the order that each of the applicants acknowledge in writing to the Commission that they had been made aware of the resale restriction.

While this is a take-over bid within the meaning of the Act it is exempted from the full operation of Part XIX by section 88(2)(c). The follow-up offer requirements of section 91(1) do not apply on the evidence before us.

(Section 24(1))

WHEREAS commencing on May 23, 1980, and continuing on May 30, June 2, June 10 and June 17, 1980, the Ontario Securities Commission (the "Commission") held a hearing pursuant to Section 24(1) of The Commodity Futures Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 48, (the "Act") to consider whether the registration of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED as an Introducing Broker, WILLIAM A. GATES as a Salesman, and RICHARD A. DEWSBURY as an Officer, and the designation of KERRY A. WINTERS as the individual responsible for the supervisory procedure of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED should be cancelled or suspended in the public interest;

UPON having heard the evidence adduced at the hearing and the submissions of counsel for the Commission and for the above-named parties;

AND UPON the Commission having formed the opinion that the making of this order is in the public interest;

IT IS ORDERED pursuant to Section 24(1) of the Act that:

1. The registration of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED as an Introducing Broker, RICHARD A.F. DEWSBURY as an Officer, and the designation of KERRY A. WINTERS as the individual responsible for the supervisory procedure of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED be and is restricted to trading with or for registered futures commission merchants, except that liquidating trades will be permitted for the purpose of the orderly closing of the accounts of other clients of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED.

2. The registration of WILLIAM A. GATES as a salesman may continue under the sponsorship of a registered dealer without any terms or conditions.

RICHARD A. DEWSBURY, KERRY A. WINTERS AND
WILLIAM A. GATES

O R D E R

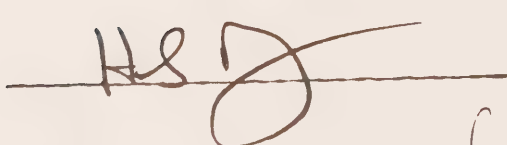

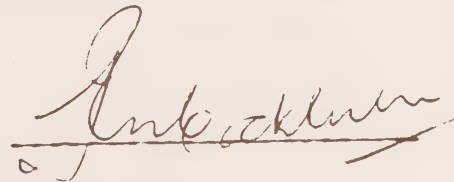

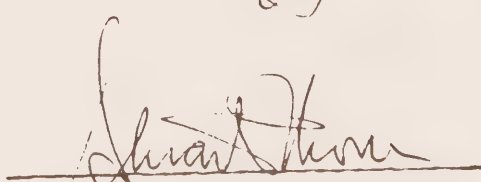

WHEREAS on June 17, 1980, the Ontario Securities Commission (the "Commission") made an order pursuant to Section 24(1) of The Commodity Futures Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 48, (the "Act") restricting the registration of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED ("ROSENTHAL") as an Introducing Broker, RICHARD A. DEWSBURY ("DEWSBURY") as an Officer, and the designation of KERRY A. WINTERS ("WINTERS") as the individual responsible for the supervisory procedures of ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED;

UPON the application of counsel on behalf of ROSENTHAL, DEWSBURY and WINTERS for an order pursuant to Section 5(2) of the Act staying the effect of the above order until the disposition of an appeal to the Supreme Court pursuant to Section 5(1) of the Act;

AND UPON having formed the opinion that it would be prejudicial to the public interest to stay the effect of the said order pending disposition of the appeal, but being willing to grant a short stay to permit the making of an application to the Divisional Court pursuant to Section 5(2) of the Act;

IT IS ORDERED that the said order be and is hereby varied to provide that the said order shall take effect on June 30, 1980.

DATED at Toronto this 18th day of June, 1980.

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMMODITY FUTURES ACT, 1978

AND

IN THE MATTER OF ROSENTHAL COMMODITIES LIMITED,
RICHARD A. F. DEWSBURY, AND KERRY A. WINTERS

Hearing: June 18, 1980

Present: H.S. Bray, Q.C. - Acting Chairman
R.N. Cockburn - Commissioner
Stuart Thom, Q.C. - Commissioner

A.S. Wakim, Q.C. - Counsel to Rosenthal
Commodities Limited,
Richard A.F. Dewsbury
and Kerry A. Winters

R. Lococo - Staff Counsel

Rosenthal Commodities Limited ("Rosenthal") holds registration as an introducing broker under The Commodity Futures Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 48 (the "Act"). Richard A.F. Dewsbury, its president and a 60% owner of the firm, holds registration as a trading officer. Kerry A. Winters, its treasurer and a 5% owner, was designated under the regulations to the Act by Rosenthal as the supervisor of the so-called retail trading of its salesmen with its clients. Mr. Winters is under the immediate supervision of Mr. Dewsbury. The third officer, the owner of the remaining 35% interest, was not on the evidence before us involved in any material way in the training and supervision of salesmen and the opening and trading of the retail accounts.

Rosenthal is the introducing broker for a major Chicago based futures commission merchant bearing a similar name, which holds registration in Ontario as a carrying broker. Originally, we were told, Rosenthal was formed by Mr. Dewsbury to provide an Ontario conduit through which Ontario futures commission merchants (then largely brokers and investment dealers with an ancilliary commodity futures contract business) could place orders in the United States. The Chicago firm is a member of every commodity exchange in the United States and England. This is the so-called wholesale business. Rosenthal, acting as agent for the Chicago firm, has no responsibility for the retail accounts of the wholesale clients excepting to transmit orders for execution. Through Rosenthal, the Chicago firm supplies certain additional services to the Ontario wholesale clients.

During the period which followed Rosenthal expanded into the retail side of the business opening accounts for members of the general public. The trades of these clients are carried on the books of the carrying broker with all money flowing through to the carrying broker and all accounting being done by it. Under the Act, which came into force on September 1, 1979, Rosenthal for the first time came under regulation which imposed on them an immediate responsibility for the training and supervision of the retail salesmen it sponsors for registration and enforcing the "know your client" and "suitability" rules found in the regulations to the Act. This included designating an officer of the company as a supervisor, in this case Mr. Winters, to ensure compliance with these requirements.

The Ontario Securities Commission's Staff, through a Notice of Hearing issued by the Commission, which gave specific details, alleged that Rosenthal failed to carry out these responsibilities with regard to its retail clients. Following five days of evidence and argument, the Commission concluded on June 17, 1980, that it was in the public interest to restrict Rosenthal's business to wholesale trading. On June 18, Mr. Wakim, on behalf of Rosenthal, was advised of this decision. We agreed on short notice to hear an application pursuant to section 5(2) of the Act for a stay of our decision pending the hearing of an appeal from it.

The evidence of Mr. Dewsbury was that Rosenthal presently employs twelve people including six sales people and two trainees apart from officers. We considered the impact of our decision on this organization but concluded that the public interest required that we should restrict the registration of Rosenthal to the wholesale side of its business, said to represent approximately 60% of it, and instructed that the retail business be wound down in an orderly fashion by permitting liquidating trades only.

In reaching this conclusion, we found that there had been a failure by Messrs. Dewsbury and Winters in screening, training and effectively supervising the retail salesmen. While some cosmetic remedial efforts have been made recently through written material to remedy the failures of Rosenthal to comply with the regulations and the directions of the Deputy Director Commodity Futures, the evidence and demeanour of Messrs. Dewsbury and Winters gave us reasonable grounds to believe that they have a minimal appreciation of the duty they owe to their clients under the regulations and little will to pay anything more than lip service to those obligations. Detailed reasons for these conclusions are being prepared and will be issued in due course.

Having reached the conclusion that Rosenthal should no longer be permitted to continue in the retail business, we instructed the immediate restriction of its business. The clients of Rosenthal have not been well served. It would be inconsistent with this opinion, unanimously held, to permit it to continue for many months in a facet of the business for which we believe it has shown little competence while an appeal is perfected and heard. Accordingly, we refused the indefinite stay requested by Mr. Wakim. We recognize the impact this will have on the inadequately supervised and, perhaps, poorly trained sales people. (The passing of prescribed examinations tests only one kind of competence and gives them neither experience nor judgement.)

We directed Mr. Wakim's attention to the further provision of section 5(2) which permits him to apply to the Divisional Court for the stay we refused. He indicated that he would like the opportunity of making such an application. Our best information was that the Divisional Court might be induced to hear his application next week. We did not want to appear to abrogate that right through our refusal and accordingly volunteered to stay the effect of our decision until Monday, June 30, 1980. We do so, however, with some reluctance in the light of our conclusions.

NOTICE

"PROJECT" PROSPECTUS FILINGS:
CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS:
APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

Where the subject matter of a filing is a "project", such as a specific film or real estate project, and the security qualified for sale is an investment contract as opposed to a share or unit of participation in a trust or partnership doubt may exist as to (a) whom the "reporting issuer" is for the purpose of the continuous disclosure requirements of Part XVII of The Securities Act, 1978, (b) what the appropriate financial information is which should be filed under sections 76 and 77 of the Part, and (c) what facts should be included in the Annual Information Statement required by section 80 of the Act. In addition question has been raised as to what person or company should have the ongoing responsibility for the preparation, mailing and filing of this information with the Commission. In some cases no attempt has been made to comply with the requirements of Part XVII or to seek a variation of those requirements through an appropriate exemption.

In order to be assured that investors in such projects who purchase investment contracts under a prospectus have appropriate continuous disclosure the Deputy Director, Corporate Finance, will request that an order be obtained from the Commission under section 79 of the Act settling these issues at or before the time that a final receipt for the prospectus issues. For the time being these applications will be dealt with on an ad hoc basis while the Commission develops a policy. The applications should focus on appropriate disclosure with the "project" as the "reporting issuer" and the promoter-project manager as the party responsible for making disclosure. The details of disclosure and its frequency will depend to some extent on the nature of the project.

IN THE MATTER OF 99139 CANADA INC.
ATCO LTD., AND
CALGARY POWER LTD.

This application was made on behalf of 99139 Canada Inc. (the Applicant), a wholly owned subsidiary of Atco Ltd. (Atco), under section 99 of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c.47, as amended (the Act) in preparation for a proposed take-over bid to purchase up to 24,450,000 Class A and Class B Common Shares of Calgary Power Ltd. (Calgary Power). This is the latest in a series of well publicized events in which Atco and Calgary Power have played active parts. Atco now seeks to purchase control of Calgary Power, a move which Calgary Power is resisting through applications brought before the Alberta Supreme Court and the Alberta Public Utilities Board (PUB). Applications for exemptions from certain take-over bid requirements imposed under the "uniform" provincial take-over legislation, requirements, we were informed, have been granted to this applicant by the Alberta, Manitoba and Quebec Securities Commissions. Calgary Power's application to the PUB stands adjourned but will be heard by the PUB on Friday, August 8th, if the applicant is able to mail its take-over bid by August 6th. In light of this urgency we set this application down on short notice on being assured that two of the interested parties, Calgary Power and The Toronto Stock Exchange, would be given notice. In addition we invited F. H. Sparling, Director of the Corporations Branch of the federal department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs to join us as an interested observer.

The application made was as follows:

- "(a) under paragraph 99(e), for an order permitting an Offer by the Applicant to purchase up to 24,450,000 Class A and Class B Common Shares in the capital of Calgary Power Ltd. (the "Company") to include a condition in addition to the conditions permitted by the Act. The proposed condition would permit the Applicant to elect not to take up and pay for shares deposited under the Offer if there exists, at the time the shares are to be taken up, any prohibition at law against so doing; and
- (b) under paragraph 99(f), for an order varying the time periods set out in Sections 89 and 90 of the Act to provide that, regardless of the number of times that the Offer is extended pursuant to its terms, the time periods provided by Section 89 will not, by operation of Section 90, cause the entire term of the Offer or the period for deposit of shares thereunder to exceed 35 days from the date on which the Offer is first made."

There is a strong Ontario interest since the application notes there are 6,597 registered Ontario shareholders holding 28,088,967 shares.

The first part of the application gave us no problem. We granted the application to extend the conditions permitted by clause 89(1)12 of the Act to include a right not to take up and pay for the securities sought if there was any prohibition in law against the Applicant so doing. The second part of the application, involving as it does a consideration of subsection 90(1a) of the Act, a subsection added in the 1979 amendments (1979, c.86, s.14) (together with clause (f) of section 99) gave rise to more substantial questions.

Subsection 90(1) of the Act provides that where a take-over bid has been varied by changing any of its terms every person or company whose shares have not been taken up and paid for and who has been sent the take-over bid circular shall be sent a notice of such change or variation and, except where a variation is solely an increase in price, the date of the take-over bid, for the purposes of section 89, shall be deemed to be the date of the sending of the notice of such change or variation. The new subsection, 1a, provides that the exercise of a right contained in (the original) take-over bid to modify the terms of the offer or to waive a condition of the offer shall be considered to be a variation which changes the terms of the take-over bid. Clauses 6 and 7 of subsection 89(1) contemplate in the case of a take-over bid for less than all of the class of securities sought (partial bids) that the take-over bid must be open for a minimum of twenty-one days which can be extended to a maximum of thirty-five days from its date. Under clause 8 of that subsection the offeror is required to take up and pay for the securities within fourteen days after the last day of the period within which securities may be deposited if all the terms and conditions not waived by the offeror have been met. The terms and conditions under which the offeror is permitted not to take up and pay for the securities deposited, if they are not waived by the offeror, are set out in clause 12 and include the failure of the offerees to tender the minimum number of securities which the offeror is bound and willing to take up. If the Applicant were to waive any of its conditions in the take-over bid the combined effect of sections 89 and 90 is to start a new twenty-one day period running, with the further right granted under clause 89(1)4 to the offerees permitting them ten days from the date of the notice required by sub-section 90(1) to withdraw the shares already deposited. This statutory extension of the offer for an additional twenty-one days would take it beyond the thirty-five day maximum offering period provided for partial bids in the uniform provisions including the Canada Business Corporations Act. This problem is the foundation of the second branch of the application.

Subsection 90(1a) of the Act responds to a problem then existing with the uniform provisions then in force in Ontario discussed in terms of the ongoing saga of the competing efforts of the Thomson and Weston organizations to take-over the Hudson's Bay Company. (Re: Offer for Hudson's Bay Company (1979) O.S.C.B.94) At page 99 some of the underlying reasons for providing offerees with a further right of withdrawal when there has been a variation in the terms of a take-over bid were explained in the following way:

"...There are several reasons why the statutory pattern provides a seven day (now ten day) withdrawal right after the making or variation of an offer. One of them is to ensure that offerees have an opportunity to analyze the offer or varied offer and to seek informed guidance. Another is to provide a meaningful opportunity for a competing offer".

The Applicant firstly sought a complete exemption from the requirements triggered by subsection 90(1a). During the course of argument this position was modified to suggest that the Applicant might be prepared to grant a right of withdrawal open until the thirty-fifth day if it did not receive the minimum number of shares bid for during that period. However it wished to reserve the right on the thirty-fifth day to waive the condition and take-up and pay for the shares then tendered. We found this unacceptable.

While we are sensitive to the need for a uniform approach during a period in which Alberta, Manitoba, Quebec and British Columbia are revising their securities legislation, and accordingly granted an order which restricted the times triggered by the application of sections 90(1) and 89 to not longer than thirty-five days from the date of the original take-over bid, we concluded that if the offer were varied on that thirty-fifth day a notice of variation should be sent out and the offerees should have the additional ten days within which to withdraw the shares tendered. The applicant suggested several scenarios to which subsection 90(1a) might apply. However the only vexing one appeared to us to be the waiver of the minimum number of shares although patently there are other conditions permitted under clause 89(1)12 which may also be waived. These were not a concern in the present application and were not pursued.

Where the offeror seeks legal control and imposes this as a condition, but then elects to waive that condition, the legislation through subsection 90(1a) views this as a change of circumstances which should afford the offerees a right to reconsider their decision to tender. Obviously the most important circumstance is where there is a competing take-over bid or issuer-bid. In such cases, where the competing bid appears likely to succeed, it is open to the original offeror to waive the condition and take up the shares tendered to that point in order to frustrate the competing bid or tender them to the competing bidder at the higher price. In the latter case offerees might properly feel that the original offeror was unjustly enriched at their expense. The shareholders who tendered to the first bid as well as those who thought it inadequate and waited for a higher bid might also feel themselves abused if the second bid were frustrated in this fashion. Subsection 90(1a) was enacted in part to afford protection from such perceived abuses to Ontario shareholders of target companies.

It was argued that if we were to confine the period to thirty-five days we should only continue the ten day withdrawal right past the thirty-five day period if a competing bid had been made at the time a condition was waived. This would follow the precedent set in the United States' federal take-over bid legislation. While further experience may dictate this result, especially as more of the provinces (and the federal government) seek to once again achieve substantial uniformity or compatibility in their take-over bid requirements, we were not prepared to accede to this suggestion in the present case. The conditions permitted by clause 89(1)12 are all substantive. If any of them are waived they constitute changed circumstances which now through subsection 90(1a) entitle the tendering security holder a further ten day opportunity of considering whether to retrieve his shares.

To illustrate, section 90(1)12(b) permits the offeror to withdraw the offer if any undisclosed action by the offeree company or its directors or senior officers results in a material change in the affairs of the company. It would not be difficult to envision a situation where the "undisclosed action" was a material change that was beneficial and perhaps already the subject of a confidential disclosure report under subsection 74(3) of the Act. It would be an inequitable result under those circumstances if the offeror had the benefit of that change to the detriment of the tendering security holders.

We have no reservation about the principle pronounced through subsection 90(1a). We concluded that it should be supported through this decision. Clause 99(f), passed as part of the amendment which included subsection 90(1a), enabled us to modify the time periods to bring them in line with the uniform requirements. Under these requirements, as noted previously, the shares must be taken up and paid for within fourteen days of the last day within which the shares may be tendered. The ten day withdrawal period dovetails with this requirement leaving an additional four days, following the withdrawal period, within which the shares could be taken up and paid for assuming the period of the offer runs the full thirty-five days permitted.

In summary the Commission's decision was as follows:

1. The Commission granted the application under subsection 99(e) of the Act to extend the conditions permitted by clause 89(1)12 of the Act to include the right not to take up and pay for the securities if there exists at the time for so doing any prohibition at law against taking up or paying for the shares sought.
2. The Commission granted the application under clause 99(f), in part, to permit changes in the time periods imposed through sections 90 and 89 of the Act as follows:
 - (a) the date of the take-over bid shall remain the date on which the original take-over bid circular was mailed to the offerees; but
 - (b) where the offeror elects to exercise a right contained in that take-over bid to modify the terms of the offer or to waive a condition of the offer the requirements of sections 90(1) and 89 are varied so that the time within which the securities may be deposited can be extended to not longer than thirty-five days from the original take-over bid provided that any securities deposited pursuant to the take-over bid or a varied take-over bid may be withdrawn by an offeree any time until the expiration of ten days from the date of the mailing of the notice of change or variation required by subsection

90(1).

This hearing was convened under the provisions of s.24 of The Commodity Futures Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c.48 (the "Act"). Its purpose, as set out in the Notice of Hearing (EXHIBIT 1), was to consider whether the registration under the Act of Rosenthal Commodities Limited (Rosenthal) as an introducing broker, Richard A.F. Dewsbury (Dewsbury) as a trading officer of Rosenthal, and William A. Gates (Gates) as a Rosenthal salesman should be suspended or cancelled in the public interest and whether the approval of Kerry A. Winters (Winters) as the supervisor designated under s. 27(3) of the Regulations to the Act (O.Reg. 430/79) should be withdrawn. While Winters was not registered as a trading officer he was designated by Rosenthal under s. 27(3) of the Regulations, as the Rosenthal officer responsible for Rosenthal's compliance with the "know your client" and "suitability" standards submitted to and approved by the Director as a condition of the continued registration of Rosenthal.

Dewsbury is the President and a 60% owner of Rosenthal. Winters, the Treasurer and a 5% owner, was the compliance officer responsible for the supervision of the trading of Rosenthal's salesmen with the retail clients. A third officer, the owner of the other 35% interest, was not on the evidence before us involved in any material way in the training and supervision of salesmen or in approving the opening and trading of retail accounts.

Rosenthal, through its registration as an Introducing Broker is the independent Ontario sales agent for a major Chicago based futures commission merchant (fcm), Rosenthal & Company (the "carrying broker"). Rosenthal & Company hold registration under the Act as a Non-Resident Carrying Broker. The carrying broker has no financial interest in Rosenthal. There is a written agreement between Rosenthal and the carrying broker, referred to in evidence by both Dewsbury and R.A. Mortell, the Chicago partner of the carrying broker responsible for supervision of the Toronto accounts. The agreement was not produced. The carrying broker does not dictate the operating procedures to be followed by Rosenthal. Mr. Mortell and his compliance department do interest themselves in new accounts, margin requirements and allied matters. All formal margin calls emanate from Chicago. The clients, both retail and wholesale, become the clients of the carrying broker and the clients' financial obligations are to the Chicago firm and not Rosenthal in Toronto. The carrying broker's concern, on the evidence (since Rosenthal clients become their clients), is directed to formal compliance with the less stringent U.S. rules. Chicago evidenced no interest in Ontario's know-your-client or suitability standards and relied on Rosenthal for new client information to satisfy its requirements.

We were told that Rosenthal was formed by Dewsbury in April, 1974 to provide an Ontario facility through which Ontario futures commission merchants (who then, as now, are largely investment dealers and brokers and who now hold registration under both The Securities Act, 1978, and the Act) could trade for themselves and for clients in the United States' markets. Rosenthal presently services six Ontario fcm's on an active basis and six others occasionally. The carrying broker is a member of every commodity exchange in the United States and England. Rosenthal has the facilities to transmit to and receive information from the carrying broker. Every new account must be submitted to and approved by the carrying broker. The carrying broker is responsible for executing and confirming the trades directly to the client. Where the Ontario fcm is the client the Ontario fcm in turn confirms the transactions in its own name to its individual clients and as an Ontario resident registrant is responsible in all respects for compliance with the know-your-client and suitability rules.

This describes briefly the "wholesale" business. Through Rosenthal the carrying broker also supplies certain additional services to the Ontario wholesale clients. The wholesale business which is conducted professionally, i.e. between dealers, did not give rise to questions.

During the period which followed Rosenthal expanded into the retail business. Over the years it has handled approximately 300 accounts for individuals. At the time of the hearing it had about 110 retail accounts. As with the wholesale clients all clients' funds flow directly to the carrying broker and all payments to clients are made by the carrying broker. Currently we were told some 60% of the firm's revenue comes from the wholesale operation, the remainder from the retail.

On September 1st, 1979 Rosenthal became subject to regulations which imposed on it for the first time a direct responsibility for the training and supervision of the retail salesmen it sponsors for registration. In fact, the parties to this hearing did not obtain registration until October 4th, 1979, because of delays in satisfying the Deputy Director, Commodity Futures. The written procedures also were accepted on October 4th and Winters was designated as the supervisor. These know-your-client and suitability rules are, on the one hand, for the protection of the firm in order that it might be assured that the client is capable of meeting the financial commitments undertaken through the trades and, on the other, to ensure that the client is not being urged to accept risks inconsistent with the client's experience, ability, financial needs and capacity. Dewsbury, as the chief executive officer, has the overall responsibility for compliance with these requirements and took an active interest in the retail business. Winters, as the designated supervisor, had the immediate responsibility for approving new accounts, the training and supervision of the retail salesmen, and the monitoring of the retail trading, including margin calls.

Following the hearing, after reviewing the evidence and considering the submissions of Counsel, we concluded that it was in the public interest that the registration of Rosenthal as an Introducing Broker should forthwith be restricted to trading with or for registered futures commission merchants, that is to the wholesale business, and that the activities of Dewsbury and Winters should similarly be restricted. The retail accounts were to be closed out in an orderly fashion. As to the allegations against Gates, we found the fault to be in those responsible for his training and supervision and not in Gates. Accordingly, the registration of William A. Gates was permitted to continue without any special additional terms or restrictions other than those already implicit in the know-your-client and suitability rules.

Immediately following the announcement of this decision on June 18th, application was made on behalf of the parties affected under s. 5(2) of the Act for an order staying our decision pending the hearing of an appeal from it. In our reasons for refusing the stay dated June 19th, 1980, without reviewing the evidence but with it fresh in our minds we noted our conclusion that there had been a failure by Messrs. Dewsbury and Winters to effectively screen, train and supervise the retail salesmen. We found that Messrs. Dewsbury and Winters, and through them Rosenthal, failed to comply with the requirements of s. 27(2) of the Regulations, and accordingly there is more than reasonable grounds for belief that in their dealings with the retail clients the business will not be carried on in accordance with the law and with the integrity so necessary in this volatile and speculative business.

There is an obligation on Ontario registrants under the Regulations to make proper enquiries about the client, the financial abilities of the client, whether this kind of speculation is appropriate for that client, the needs of the client for advice and guidance in a highly professional, fast moving market notwithstanding the business or professional background of the client in other areas, and a responsibility on the dealer to employ competent salespeople capable of providing clients with such advice. It follows that the supervisors must be even more skilled and competent in order to approve the new client accounts and to be assured that the client is being properly serviced by the salespeople and is not being permitted or encouraged to trade in a mindless roll of the dice fashion without regard to the odds. These qualities we found lacking in the Rosenthal retail operation. On the wholesale side this kind of competence is not necessary since all that Rosenthal provides is a facility. We were led to these conclusions by the following facts.

Dewsbury, as we have noted, is the principal shareholder of Rosenthal as well as its chief executive officer. In November and December, 1973 he spent some time with Rosenthal & Co. in Chicago. The nature of the relationship was not dealt with. He had earlier held registration as a salesman under The Securities Act. During April, 1974 Rosenthal was incorporated with Dewsbury as its sole shareholder. Apart from this brief period with the carrying broker there is no evidence of Dewsbury or any of his officers having had any previous experience in the operation of a commodity futures trading firm. (His earlier experience with Bache & Co. Inc. was as a security salesman).

The "introducing broker" category of registrant was created effectively to grandfather a few existing relationships such as Rosenthal's. Certainly by the objective standards set out in s. 27(2) of the Regulations Rosenthal and its officers would have difficulty in qualifying in any category excepting perhaps as salesmen. The registration granted on October 4th, 1979 recognized the fact that the firm was in existence and that its clients could not be serviced by the carrying broker if registration was refused and the relationship effectively terminated. In granting registration at the time the new Act came into force in the absence of evidence to the contrary, fairness dictated that weight be given to the then more than five years that Rosenthal had been in existence.

Winters, on his own evidence, has even less experience than Dewsbury. He too for a time had been a security salesman but in 1974 became an accountant with a brokerage firm. He then opened up his own accounting business and it was in this connection, in 1976, that he became a part-time accountant for Rosenthal. On January 2nd, 1979 he commenced work as a full-time employee as Rosenthal's treasurer. He has had very little experience in commodity futures trading. He has passed the commodity supervisor's examinations.

On October 16th, 1979 Samuel Varco, Jr. (Varco) was granted registration as a salesman with Rosenthal, conditional upon his completing the necessary salesman's exams on or before March 4th, 1980. Varco did not pass these exams and Rosenthal permitted his registration to lapse on March 4th, 1980 because of the failure to meet this condition. In point of fact Varco's employment had been terminated by Rosenthal for cause about the end of 1979.

Varco, then residing in Fort Erie, had been a sugar broker. As such he had knowledge of the commodity. His evidence was that his activities in sugar futures were reasonably successful. At one time he appears to have been a man of some means. During this period he testified that he had made many trades as a speculator in commodity futures. Early in 1979 he opened a personal account with Rosenthal making margin deposits of over $40,000. By April of that year his trading losses had exhausted this deposit and when his account was closed out he owed approximately $6,000 in U.S. funds. Varco then was going through a period of personal difficulty. Dewsbury did not press him for the money owing. In or about June of 1979 Varco spoke to Dewsbury about paying the account. Dewsbury suggested that Varco might join Rosenthal as a salesman. Dewsbury's evidence was to the effect that Varco seemed knowledgeable in the field of commodity futures trading and had useful contacts which would be valuable in developing a retail clientele. Varco was advised by Dewsbury that he would have to pass an examination but that he would have a period of grace in which to do so.

Varco was hired as a salesman by Rosenthal in September 1979. He was given no training. His only instruction was as to the procedures to be followed in filling out the documents necessary to open a new account and in executing orders. It is clear from the evidence of Dewsbury and Winters that the firm had no training program for new salesmen, that there was no probationary period during which they were instructed and supervised by more experienced personnel. There was no reservoir of knowledge and experience which could be tapped by the salesmen for the benefit of the clients. It is also clear that there was no continuing advice available from the carrying broker. Even in the case of Gates, who came to the field with some academic knowledge and who appears to have had as good a potential as any salesman employed by the firm, he suffered from this lack of training and experienced back-up and supervision.

Varco's relationships with three individuals were examined in some depth. They were John D. Elltoft (Elltoft) a medical doctor from Niagara-on-the-Lake, Albert I. Woeppel (Woeppel), an orthodontist from Buffalo, New York, and Robert G. Hall (Hall), a businessman from Crystal Beach, Ontario. Elltoft met Varco socially some time during the late summer of 1979. Woeppel had acted professionally for Varco's family. Hall stated that he had known Varco for a number of years.

During the summer of 1979 Varco had persuaded Woeppel that there was money to be made in trading sugar futures and that he had the expertise. Varco agreed to manage an account for Woeppel and his son in commodity futures in which Varco had full discretion. Such an account was established through a New York fcm. Varco was successful and made a profit for the Woeppels. Then he proposed opening a similar account for Woeppel at Rosenthal.

Exhibit 26 is a customer information form filed with the carrying broker dated August 25, 1979 and signed by Woepfel. Rosenthal was instructed by the carrying broker not to accept the account because the customer resided in Buffalo and not in Ontario. Woepfel gave Varco four cheques, each for $2,000 U.S. and each dated September 17, 1979 payable to Rosenthal each of which was accepted for deposit by Rosenthal and, as discussed below, deposited to the credit of either the Elltoft or Hall accounts with the carrying broker.

While Elltoft and Hall made no complaint about the discretion exercised by Varco or of the loss of their money Varco's conduct was quite improper. Varco was not entitled to manage a discretionary account. (See Sections 29, 30, 31 and 42(3) of the Regulations). No one at Rosenthal had established the qualifications to manage discretionary Elltoft and Hall each testified that at Varco's request they had opened accounts at Rosenthal. This was in the late summer of 1979. Neither of them had any experience in commodity futures trading and both were content to give Varco discretion to trade the accounts opened in their names. Varco corroborates this testimony. Each of them agreed to put up a sum of money, $5,000 U.S. in the case of Elltoft and $3,500 U.S. in the case of Hall. Each of them understood that Varco had discretion to trade for their account, that he might make money for them but that their losses would be restricted to the sums deposited as initial margin. There was substantial trading in their names during the next short period of time. Elltoft's account opened on September 11, 1979. Varco commenced to actively trade it. On September 17th two of Woepfel's $2,000 cheques were credited to the account and on September 20th an additional $2,000 for a total of $6,000 in addition to the original $5,000 deposit. A further $366.50 was put into the account on September 28th to close it out. In all $11,366.50 U.S. was lost in the account.

Hall's account is shown as opening on August 31, 1979 with a deposit of $3,500 U.S. Trading in sugar contracts on that date resulted in a small profit. Trading accelerated into other commodities and on September 5th $1,100 was deposited in the account. On September 11th a further $5,400 was deposited. The fourth Woepfel $2,000 cheque was received by Rosenthal and, on the evidence, credited to the Hall account on September 17th. By October 8th this account was also closed out. The losses in the account were in excess of $14,000. Varco acknowledges, in a letter dated December 12, 1979 (Exhibit 35) that he deposited $10,868.17 into the account in addition to the $3,500 provided by Hall in order to cover the debit balances.

accounts. Rosenthal takes the position that it was unaware that Varco was running discretionary accounts. This is a major illustration of the inadequacy of Rosenthal's supervisory procedures and practices.

The relationship between Woeppel and Varco is an interesting one. Any time that funds are received by a dealer for an account from a third party source, the firm is put upon enquiry. Question was raised by Woeppel through Winters and Dewsbury about the deposit of the four Woeppel cheques to the accounts of Elltoft and Hall. Dewsbury and Winters did not see fit to ask either Elltoft or Hall why someone else was making payments on their behalf, or for that matter what the relationship, if any, was between Messrs. Elltoft, Hall and Woeppel. Instead when Varco produced the Woeppel cheques they were accepted and he was asked to get written authority from Woeppel, after the fact, authorizing the deposit of the cheques in two accounts, Hall and Elltoft. Varco agreed to do this when he went home to Fort Erie on the weekend and on Monday produced a document, Exhibit 40, dated Saturday, September 22, 1979 purporting to be signed by Woeppel authorizing these deposits. We were told by Varco that he had signed Woeppel's name under some authority he purported to have from Woeppel. In any event the document allayed Rosenthal's concerns for the time being.

While Woeppel and Varco were vague as to the question of why Woeppel had given Varco four cheques payable to Rosenthal, as the events unfolded both Woeppel and Varco treated them as a loan by Woeppel to Varco. Woeppel states that he was told by Varco shortly after he gave Varco the cheques that the $8,000 had been lost. Woeppel then telephoned Rosenthal where he spoke to Winters and was told that the money had been deposited in two accounts. He was given the numbers of the accounts and the names in which they were deposited. Subsequently he received two letters, Exhibits 19 and 20, from Varco confirming the details. Varco had given him a promissory note and acknowledged the debt. After Woeppel made a complaint Dewsbury agreed that he would assist Woeppel in obtaining repayment of his money by deducting money from Varco's commissions. Some details are reflected in a letter from Woeppel to Dewsbury dated November 7, 1979 (Exhibit 23) and a letter from Dewsbury to Woeppel dated November 21, 1979 enclosing a cheque for $767.52 (Exhibit 22).

Winters testified that he and Dewsbury questioned Varco about the Woeppel cheques on the day that the last cheque was deposited, that is September 20. Winters recalls receiving a phone call on October 4th from Woeppel about the four cheques. As a result of the October 4th conversation he learned that Woeppel had not signed the authorization. Winters reported this to Dewsbury and they got Varco in to question him about it. Varco claimed to have authority from Woeppel. Dewsbury did not write or phone Woeppel but had Varco write Woeppel the letters previously referred to, Exhibits 19 and 20. Nothing further happened until November 5th when Woeppel phoned again. He was still unhappy. By this time the Elltoft and Hall accounts were closed out. Winters was watching Varco's trading and in fact had refused to authorize the opening of a new account submitted by Varco. After the initial discussions with Woeppel in early October Winters suggested to Dewsbury that Varco's services should be terminated. However, this was not done. Winters took some comfort from the fact that Rosenthal had not heard from Elltoft or Hall; Hall did write a letter dated December 13, 1979 to the carrying broker complaining of the manner in which his account had been traded and suggesting that the persons involved with trading the account should be investigated. As a result of this Rosenthal received a call from the Compliance Officer of the carrying broker. With this further information in their possession Dewsbury agreed with Winters that Varco should be dismissed. However, because of the Christmas season, it would be done at the year end.

No useful purpose would be served in these reasons to further explore in detail the evidence of Winters, Dewsbury and Varco as to subsequent events. Varco believed that his services had been terminated. Winters believed that he had fired Varco but that Dewsbury, as an act of compassion, knowing that Varco was not working and that Varco's registration would be terminated as a matter of course through his failure to pass the salesman's exams, decided to treat these final weeks as sick leave. This strained story was offered by Dewsbury and Winters as an explanation as to why Rosenthal had not notified the Commission, as Rosenthal was obliged to do under s. 30(1)9c) of the Act of the fact of Varco's termination of employment and the reason therefor.

The failure of Dewsbury and Winters to make enquiries when the Woeppel cheques were deposited and their subsequent failure to investigate Varco's handling of the Elltoft and Hall accounts is inexcusable. Varco was putting Elltoft, Hall and the carrying broker at risk. One can only conclude that Dewsbury hired Varco in the hope that Varco would bring in enough business and thereby generate enough commissions to pay off the outstanding indebtedness. The arrangements made with Woeppel to repay Woeppel out of Varco's earnings suggest that Dewsbury knew more about the nature and extent of Varco's misconduct than he was prepared to admit under oath during the hearing. We did not find the explanations offered by Dewsbury to be credible. Winters acted under Dewsbury's direction.

The Ben Burke account offers a good example of how quickly fortunes can change in the commodity futures market. It further brings into question Rosenthal's procedures for opening new accounts and supervising the trading in existing accounts. Ben Burke is a semi-retired businessman who, on his own testimony, is of some substantial financial worth. He first became interested in the commodities market and did some trading in August 1979 through a Toronto fcm. About September 21, 1979 he opened an account at Rosenthal. The salesman he dealt with was William A. Gates. Gates had been employed by Rosenthal since October 1978. Gates completed the new account forms. Gates concluded that Burke was knowledgeable, that he understood the market and the leverage factors involved.

Based on Burke's evidence it is difficult to understand how Gates could have come to this conclusion.

As evidence of Burke's credit worthiness Burke gave them the name of his bank and a cheque for $30,000 in U.S. funds. Winters telephoned the bank and was advised that the cheque was good. From the tone of the reply Winters inferred that Burke was worth considerably more than $30,000. This was the extent of the investigation made concerning Burke's credit worthiness. On the evidence it fairly represents the standard of investigation made by Rosenthal on the opening of new accounts. No effort was made to explore the suitability of trading for this new client.

On September 26th Burke purchased and sold five sugar contracts for a net loss. On September 28th he purchased and sold thirty gold contracts for a net profit. These are so-called day trades, initiated and closed out on the same day, where no deposit of margin or good faith money was required. Only the net losses had to be made good. On October 1st Burke purchased another ten gold contracts. This was not a day trade. On the same day he deposited $35,000 into his account.

Burke had been discussing his trading success with a friend, Irving Kumer (Kumer). Kumer phoned Burke early in the morning of October 2nd and asked Burke whether it would be possible for him to buy ten gold contracts. Gold at that time had been increasing in value for several days as is evidenced by the profits Burke had made. Burke phoned Gates, enquiring about the possibility of Kumer purchasing contracts. Gates, quite properly, told Burke that Rosenthal would not trade for Kumer until Kumer had opened an account but that if Burke wished he might want to buy for Kumer in his account. Gates made it clear that the liability for the purchases would be Burke's. Burke then requested Gates to purchase twenty gold contracts, ten for himself and ten on behalf of Kumer. Since there was sufficient equity in the Burke account to margin the purchase Gates, after checking with Winters, accepted it. However, he told Burke that gold was "up the limit" and he might have difficulty in purchasing the contracts. The order was filled soon after the market opened on October 2nd at a price of $472 per ounce.

In addition to the deposit made the previous day Burke had given Gates three cheques: one for $5,000, two for $10,000, for a total of $25,000. These cheques could be deposited by Gates as additional margin was needed. The order for twenty contracts of June '80 gold at $472 per ounce had a nominal value of $944,000 U.S. This required a margin deposit of $60,000 U.S. Burke already had ten contracts of March '80 gold in his account and because of the earlier increase overnight had now a paper profit of $40,000. By depositing the three cheques for $25,000, which had been kept in a desk in the office, the necessary margin was provided. Winters, who approved the purchase of the 20 contracts, assumed a substantial risk in the account based on only the uncertified cheques and the paper profit on the ten contracts already purchased. The carrying broker thus bore a substantial risk having regard to minimal investigation made of Burke's credit worthiness.

After placing the order with Gates Burke arranged to have the Kumers pick him up about 9:30 a.m. Kumer was accompanied by his wife Judy. They proceeded to Rosenthal's office so that the Kumers might open an account. They arrived shortly before 11:00 a.m. Immediately following the purchase of the twenty contracts for the Burke account the price of gold began a precipitous decline. As the market reports came in Gates spoke to Winters. They became increasingly concerned at the exposure of both the Burke account and the firm to serious loss. Gates made an effort to get in touch with Burke and was told by Burke's wife that Burke was on his way down to the Rosenthal office. As the price of gold continued to collapse Winters instructed that ten of the twenty contracts just purchased be liquidated.

When Burke and the Kumers arrived in the office shortly after the sale Burke was taken to one side by Gates and informed that the $40,000 paper profit, together with the $25,000 deposited had now become an approximately $54,000 loss. A cheque for this amount was required. Kumer was led to believe that the loss was his. Kumer left a blank cheque with his wife, Judy, who had accompanied him to Rosenthal's office, and left the office shocked by the loss. Subsequently there was an agreement between the Kumers and Burke that they would split the contracts and Judy filled in an amount of $54,750 U.S. on the cheque which was deposited to the credit of the Burke account. Burke and the Kumers shared the loss as well as the equity in the ten remaining gold contracts purchased that day.

The casual manner in which the Burke account was opened and traded, the lack of any credible effort to test Burke's credit worthiness and the suitability of the trading for his account culminating in the events of October 2nd further illustrate the deficiencies in the firm's procedures for which Winters had a direct responsibility. The fact that Burke and the Kumers did pay up was fortuitous. In the end result Dewsbury must accept responsibility for the absence of sound trading controls. This includes permitting trading by a new customer after only a perfunctory check on his financial position and experience, placing orders without obtaining margin deposits and liquidating a part of the client's position without affording the client an opportunity of putting up additional margin.

On the latter point there is no question that an unusual market situation developed on October 2nd. The evidence of Mr. Mortell must be carefully weighed in this connection, particularly having regard to his experience and seniority as a partner of the carrying broker. He testified that under the circumstances he might have sold all the gold contracts in the account for the protection of the firm and the client. He acknowledged the right of the client to arbitration if, as it did, the price of gold recovered.

Rosenthal had placed itself in this difficult position by accepting Burke's order to purchase 10 additional contracts in his account as agent for Kumer. Kumer was a completely unknown factor at this juncture. Having regard to the minimal information Gates and Winters had about Burke's sophistication and real financial worth the decision to liquidate 10 contracts is understandable. We must conclude however that the decision was for the benefit of Rosenthal and not the client.

The last episode placed before us illustrates in a different way a result of Winters' failure to effectively monitor the trading of the salespeople. Lorne Cohen (Cohen) and Robin Ross (Ross) opened a joint trading account at Rosenthal late in November of 1979. The salesperson on the account was Paulette Blewett (Blewett). Paulette Blewett and her brother Robert Maydo were registered with Rosenthal as salespeople on October 16, 1979. By letter dated October 10, 1979, filed in support of her application, Winters advised David Walters, the Deputy Director, Commodity Futures, that with reference to the application of Mrs. Blewett "she will be subjected to supervision over and above our usual high standards." Ross had some previous experience in commodity futures trading. Cohen's experience commenced in the fall of 1979. Around Christmas Ross and Cohen agreed to terminate their partnership and at about the same time Ross left Toronto to go down south. The joint account recorded the purchase of one gold contract on December 27, 1979 and a second gold contract on December 28, 1979. Ross testified that he was away and the only contract he had authorized was the purchase of a Deutsch Mark contract also purchased on December 27th. Cohen, reviewing the account, testified that he had no recollection of placing the order for the gold contract executed on December 27th. He did place the order for the gold contract purchased on December 28th. He knew nothing about the December 27th gold transaction.

Winters stated (Exhibit 34) that on December 28th Blewett came to him and showed him her "equity run", that is a computer print out of all her customer's existing positions as at the previous day, stating that the gold contract credited to the Ross-Cohen account, 26018, did not belong there. Winters obtained the trading ticket and showed her the order, in her hand writing, to purchase one gold contract for account 26018. Winters took no further action stating that he advised Blewett that if there was any problem about the trade to let him know. He did not hear further about the matter until the police executed a search warrant on the Rosenthal premises on January 9, 1980.

Cohen testified that he first heard of the December 27th gold contract purchase on January 2nd when he was contacted by Blewett. On December 31st he had sold the contract he purchased on December 28th and believed that he owned no gold contracts at the year's end. Gold had increased in value. Blewett told him that a gold contract had been put in the joint account by mistake. It could be sold and the profit divided equally amongst her, her brother and Cohen. Cohen pretended to go along with the suggestion. He testified that Blewett told him the contract was meant for somebody else. The contract was sold, according to Cohen on January 4th at a profit of about $6,000 U.S. There was continued pressure put on Cohen by Blewett and later her brother. Cohen sought the assistance of enforcement authorities, including the Commission's staff. The outcome was that criminal charges were laid against Blewett and her brother which are still outstanding.

Dewsbury testified that he knew nothing about the gold transaction until the police arrived on his premises. He then tried to find out who owned the December 27th gold contract. No one claimed it and Dewsbury declared himself satisfied that it was Cohen's contract notwithstanding the efforts made by Cohen to disclaim the contract by going to the police. The extraordinary result of Dewsbury's position is that the carrying broker was not told the facts and Ross, on behalf of the duo, went to Chicago and got a cheque for the proceeds payable to himself and Cohen.

In the Commission's opinion the circumstances of the Cohen affair further indicate the serious failure of Dewsbury and Winters to adequately supervise and control the activities of their employees. Moreover, when a mistake was made, if indeed Blewett put the contract in the Ross-Cohen account by mistake, they did not pursue the matter to ensure that the interests of the firm and its customers were protected.

We were afforded the benefit of hearing Dewsbury, Winters and Gates. Winters, we concluded, was ill equipped for the duties he had been asked by Dewsbury to undertake. With all the real accounting being done in Chicago his duties as treasurer would not be onerous. Dewsbury's evidence was facile and self-serving. As the chief executive officer and principal shareholder his is the prime responsibility. We did not find that he had any real understanding or appreciation of his responsibility to the firm's retail clients under the conditions of registration imposed by section 27 of the Regulations.

Mr. Walters patently exhibited tolerance and forbearance in the months preceding and following the coming into force of the new Act in his attempts to educate Dewsbury and Winters as to these responsibilities. Winters does not understand them. With the more experienced Dewsbury it is not difficult to find that he chose not to understand. For the foregoing reasons we formed the opinion that, based upon the conduct demonstrated, there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Rosenthal business, so far as it relates to dealing with the retail clients is concerned, was not being conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Act and in particular section 27 of the Regulations or with that degree of integrity required of a registrant. We view this deficiency as one that cannot be corrected through study and by passing exams. Passing the supervisor's examination clearly did not help Winters. For this reason we ordered that Rosenthal's registration be restricted to trading with futures commission merchants, that is to professional trading only.

DESIGNATION OF GOVERNMENT INCENTIVE SECURITIES

In the Weekly Summary for the week ending 11 April 1980 there appeared a NOTICE IV containing four numbered paragraphs which identified securities designated by the Commission, for purposes of clause g of section 14 of the Regulation under the Securities Act, 1978, as government incentive securities.

By a subsequent Notice published in the Weekly Summary for the week ending 24 April 1980 the Commission advised that numbered paragraph 3 thereof had been replaced by an amended designation.

By an Order of the Commission dated 21 August 1980 numbered paragraph 3 has once more been revised and a numbered paragraph 5 added.

For convenience of subscribers the following are securities currently designated by the Commission as government incentive securities:

1. Units or interests in a project that, as of 31 December 1979, qualified as a multiple-unit residential building under the Regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada)
2. Units or interests in a motion picture film or a videotape that is eligible for certification as a certified feature production or a certified short production under the Regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada)

DECISIONS, ORDERS AND RULINGS

IN THE MATTER OF THE SECURITIES ACT

AND

IN THE MATTER OF CANADIAN CABLESYSTEMS LIMITED, and PREMIER COMMUNICATIONS LIMITED

Hearing: August 7th, 1980

Present: Henry J. Knowles, Q.C. - Chairman
Harry S. Bray, Q.C. - Vice-Chairman
Dean S.M.D. Beck - Commissioner
R. T. Morgan - Commissioner
E. S. Miles - Commissioner
W. A. Simonton, F.C.A. - Commissioner
R. N. Cockburn - Commissioner
S. Thom, Q.C. - Commissioner

Eric P. Salsberg - Counsel to Canadian Cablesystems Limited

W. K. Orr - Staff Counsel

Canadian Cablesystems Limited (CCL) proposes to make a take-over bid for all of the outstanding shares of Premier Communications Limited (Premier). Having recently obtained the permission of the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunication Commission (CRTC) CCL will acquire 69% of the shares of Premier from controlling and significant shareholders to add to the 16% it already holds. The take-over bid will be an offer for the balance of the shares.

CCL intends to make its original offer for a period of twenty-two days. It wishes to be in a position to extend the offer. The offer will be unconditional and after the ten day statutory withdrawal period expires, that is, commencing on the eleventh day following the date of the offer, it proposes to commence taking up and paying for the shares in accordance with the term accepted by the offerees. Each offeree will have the option of accepting $25.00 in cash, one CCL preferred share redeemable and retractable at $25.00 or, as now constituted, three Class B shares of CCL for each Premier share. It is estimated that it will take a maximum of fourteen days after acceptance of the Premier shares tendered to pay the appropriate consideration to an individual offeree.

This application was made under section 99(e) of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c.47, as amended (the Act) for an order permitting CCL to extend the time of the offer without attracting the obligations imposed by sections 90 and 89. Subsection 1a of section 90, states that the exercise of a right contained in the original take-over bid to modify the terms of the offer or to waive a condition of the offer shall be considered to be a variation which changes the terms of the take-over bid. This being so, under section 90(1) notice of such change or variation must be sent to every offeree whose shares have not been taken up and paid for and the date of the take-over bid, for the purposes of section 89, shall be deemed to be the date of the sending of the notice of such change or variation. Notwithstanding the fact that this is an unconditional offer for all of the shares the combined effect of clauses 2, 3 and 4 of section 89(1) would be that the offer must be extended for at least a further twenty-one days, a further ten day right of withdrawal is given, and the offeror will be unable to take up and pay for any of the shares tendered under the extended offer until after this ten day period. The Commission agreed with the Applicant that this was a reasonable interpretation of the result of the subsection (1a) addition to section 90 (1979 S.O., c.86, S.14).

The Commission granted the order requested. Where the offeror owns or has a binding contract to purchase the majority of the shares, proposes making an unconditional offer for all of the remaining shares and promises prompt payment for shares tendered there is no public interest in granting a further right of withdrawal to those shareholders whose shares have not actually been taken up and paid for or in preventing shareholders tendering under the extended offer from having their shares immediately taken up and paid for. In terms of the application, in granting the exemption, we conditioned the order upon the Applicant taking up and paying for the shares within fourteen days of their being tendered under an extended offer.

Partial bids give rise to different considerations. The Commission has recently (August 5th, 1980) considered the problem raised through section 90(1a) where the take-over bid is being made in more than one province for less than all of the outstanding shares. The reasons for the decision in that matter, in Re: 99139 Canada Inc., Atco Ltd. and Calgary Power Ltd., will be published together with these reasons, it is anticipated, in the Commission's September, 1980, Bulletin. For the reasons given in that decision it may be that an unconditional offer for all of the securities of an offeree company which fixes a time period for the offer or which is conditioned on a minimum number of shares being tendered within a time frame will give rise to the concerns explored in the "99139 or Atco decision".

Q.C., Director, Ontario
Securities Commission

This hearing was convened on the basis of a letter ("the complaint") dated May 13, 1980, addressed to Charles R.B. Salter, Q.C., the Director of the Ontario Securities Commission ("the Director") from Davies, Ward & Beck on behalf of Toril Holdings Limited ("Toril") alleging deficiencies in a take-over bid circular mailed by Canada Cement Lafarge Limited ("CCL") on Wednesday, May 7, 1980, to the shareholders of Standard Industries Limited ("Standard") in which CCL offered to purchase all of the shares of Standard not then owned by CCL at $7.50 per share. As CCL owned 73.6% of the Class "A" common shares of Standard at the date of its take-over bid, that bid was an "insider bid" and OSC Policy 3-37 applied to it. Policy 3-37 required CCL to include an independent valuation of Standard in its take-over bid circular unless exempted from so doing by the Director. Before dealing with the allegations in the complaint it is necessary to set out the background to the exemption granted by the Director on May 2, 1980.

Policy 3-37 was first published to deal with "issuer bids". This subject was later included in The Securities Act, 1978, and its regulations. Section 163 of those regulations defines "going private transactions" requiring independent valuations and deals with the method of valuations. The Supplement to Policy 3-37 dealing with "going private transactions" involving a "squeeze out" has largely been superceded by section 163. However, there remains what are styled "insider bids", that is take-over bids made by an insider, defined in the Supplement to Policy 3-37 under the heading "II. Disclosure Requirements", which apply to the present situation. Under the policy CCL, as an insider, is required to include in the take-over bid circular a summary of any appraisal or valuation known to the directors or officers of the offeror, CCL. In addition, where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the price being offered by the insider to the remaining shareholders may be substantially less than the fair value of the shares sought the offeror must include a summary of an independent valuation of the issuer as a going concern made not more than three months prior to the date of the take-over bid and the resulting fair value of the class of securities sought in the circular. The Supplement then goes on to state, under the heading "Valuations" that a valuation will be required unless the Director (or the Commission on appeal from the Director) is satisfied that:-

- (a) the price offered is not less than the fair value of the securities concerned, based on underlying assets or earnings, or
- (b) after the transaction those security-holders who decline the offer will have available a market to dispose of their securities that is liquid or at least not materially less liquid than prior to the transaction.

These special insider bid requirements are predicated on the assumption that an insider, as in the present case, may have access to information not generally available to the remaining shareholders. In due course, the Commission will attempt to eliminate confusion by publishing a revised Policy 3-37 focussing on those areas not yet dealt with in the Act or regulations.

The Director satisfies himself as to the fairness of the price offered through an exception to the valuation requirements set out in the "going private" part of the Supplement. This states that "a valuation is not necessary...where the price offered was arrived at in a genuine arm's length transaction (for example, a take-over bid resulting in control of the corporation changing hands) within one year prior to the going private transaction, and management certifies that no intervening event, nor any prior event undisclosed at the time of the initial transaction, could reasonably be expected materially to increase the value of the corporation..." A later interpretative statement, dealing with this exemption notes,

"...Difficulties arise where the transaction sought to be relied upon is for less than the control block; for example, an arm's length purchase by the controlling shareholder of a sizeable block of the minority-held shares. Commission staff have accepted a very few such transactions as qualifying for the exemption upon evidence that the selling shareholders had special knowledge of the issuer. The reason for insisting generally upon a transaction involving a control block if it is to displace the valuation requirement in a subsequent transaction is the view that an offeror who seeks to acquire control of an issuer will have considered underlying values, as will have the selling shareholder; in transactions for less than control, purely market considerations are much more likely to have obtained."

It is against this background that CCL made the application to the Director for a ruling that in making this insider bid CCL should be exempted from the independent valuation requirements of the Supplement to Policy 3-37. On April 21, 1980, CCL had purchased 1,498,852 Class "A" common shares of Standard from Pitts Engineering Construction Limited ("Pitts") at a price of $7.50 per share. Paul Messier ("Messier"), Secretary and General-Counsel to CCL, contacted the Director and placed this fact before the Director and sought an exemption on behalf of CCL from the valuation requirements on the basis of CCL's arm's length transaction with Pitts. In a three page letter dated May 1, 1980, Messier confirmed the facts and quoted from the draft CCL take-over bid circular for the remaining Standard shares. In a letter dated May 2, 1980, addressed to CCL's Toronto solicitor, Paul Moore, Mr. Salter stated, "On the facts given by you during our earlier meeting and as set out by Mr. Messier, I am satisfied that the take-over bid price is not less than the fair value of the shares sought, based on underlying assets and earnings. In reaching that conclusion, I have relied on the arm's length transaction between Canada Cement and Pitts Engineering as providing the equivalent of an independent valuation."

The complaint alleged the following deficiencies in CCL's take-over bid circular:-

- (1) the take-over bid circular does not provide full, true and plain disclosure as required by section 168(7) of the regulations to the Securities Act, 1978;
- (2) the take-over bid circular does not contain the information called for in Form 31 as mandated by section 164 of the Regulations in that the material facts concerning the securities of Standard have been omitted from the circular in contravention of the requirement of item 16(a) of Form 31;
- (3) matters referred to in the allegations in the complaint were matters known to CCL that had not been generally disclosed but which would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of the shareholders of Standard to reject or accept the offer and, as such, are required to be included in the take-over bid circular by virtue of Item 16(b) of Form 31; and
- (4) that CCL was in possession of "material facts" as defined in section 1(1)22 of the Act in that such facts would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of the shares of Standard and accordingly, under section 75(1) of the Act, CCL, being a company in a "special relationship" with Standard (as an insider) was prohibited from purchasing or selling shares of Standard with knowledge of the material facts not so generally disclosed, that is the facts within their knowledge which ought to have been disclosed in the take-over bid circular.

In addition, it was alleged that on May 8, 1980, the day following publication of the take-over bid circular, additional information was brought to the attention of Standard's board of directors which indicated that the underlying fair value of the assets of Standard was some $80,000,000 in excess of book value or approximately $12.60 in excess of Standard's per-share book value of $7.12 as at March 31, 1980.

As a result of the allegations in the complaint noted above it was submitted that John D. Redfern ("Redfern") the President and Chief Executive Officer of CCL and P. Jongeneel ("Jongeneel"), the Executive Vice-President, Finance, of CCL, who were both directors of Standard and who both attended the Standard board meeting of May 8, ought to have amended CCL's take-over bid circular pursuant to section 90(1) of the Act.

The standard of disclosure to be adhered to in a Take-Over Bid Circular and a Directors' Circular is set out in the Act and Regulations. Section 168(7) of the Regulations provides that:-

Each circular or notice required under Part XIX of the Act shall provide full, true and plain disclosure of the matters required to be disclosed therein.

Section 164 requires a take-over bid circular to contain the information prescribed in Form 31, and section 165 requires a directors' circular to contain the information prescribed in Form 32.

Turning to the Forms themselves, Item 16 "Other Material Facts" of Form 31 states:-

Describe any:-

- (a) material facts concerning the securities of the offeree company, and
- (b) any other matter not disclosed in the foregoing that has not previously been generally disclosed and is known to the offeror but which would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of the security-holders of the offeree company to accept or reject the offer." (Underlining added).

Item 12 "Other Information" of Form 32 states:-

State the particulars of any other information not disclosed in the foregoing but known to the directors which would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of the security-holders of the offeree company to accept or reject the offer.

The certificates to both the Take-Over Bid Circular and the Directors' Circular have been modified in conformity with the thrust of the expanded continuous disclosure requirements of the Act to state:-

The foregoing contains no untrue statement of a material fact and does not omit to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in the light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Section 1(1)22 of the Act states:-

...'material fact' where used in relation to securities issued or proposed to be issued means a fact that significantly affects, or would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on, the market price or value of such securities.

It was also submitted that the continuing failure by CCL to comply with Section 90(1) of the Act constituted a breach by CCL of Section 75(1) of the Act in that CCL is a company in a "special relationship with Standard proposing to purchase or sell securities of Standard with the knowledge of a material fact which CCL knew had not been disclosed".

The complainant alleged that there were reasonable grounds to believe that the price offered by CCL to the remaining Standard shareholders might be substantially less than the fair value of the Standard shares and asked that the independent valuation required by the Supplement to Policy 3-37 be provided. The Messier letter referred only to the Pitts transaction and did not disclose any of the undisclosed information that CCL had in its possession concerning Standard at that point in time. Moreover, subsequent to the Directors' decision of May 2, the President of Standard, Hugh F. Grightmire ("Grightmire") had tabled an in-house valuation of the underlying assets of Standard at a meeting of Standard's Board of Directors on May 8, 1980, at which Redfern and Jongeneel were present, showing an increase in the underlying fair value of Standard's assets in excess of book value of some $80,000,000. Accordingly the complainant requested that the Director's order of May 2 exempting CCL from the valuation requirements of the Supplement to Policy 3-37 be rescinded.

The effect of requiring the Director to rescind his order of May 2 would be that the CCL offer for the shares of Standard would be stayed until such time as an independent valuation of Standard had been prepared and a summary thereof was contained in an amended take-over bid circular. Until this was done the Commission was asked to issue a cease trading order under Section 123 of the Act to prohibit CCL from taking up and paying for any shares tendered under the offer.

The Toronto Stock Exchange halted trading in the shares of Standard on the basis of the allegations contained in the complaint on Friday, May 16, 1980. The Director had discussions with Mr. Beck and Mr. Moore as to how the allegations might most expeditiously be dealt with. CCL did not offer to amend their take-over bid circular nor to obtain an independent evaluation. Their offer was in the market place and could not be withdrawn except through the intervention of the Commission. As a result, the Commission determined to hold this hearing on short notice.

The complaint alleges, and we find as a fact, that CCL, through its interlocking directorate with Standard and through communications made directly to it by Standard, was in possession of material information which had not been generally disclosed and was not disclosed in the CCL take-over bid circular. This information included:-

(1) A memo dated June 9, 1976, to the Board of Standard from President Grightmire advising that in his best judgment the current land values of Standard properties was $32,566,000 against a book value of $10,129,000, without taking into account reserves contained in the aggregate lands at a conservative value of $24,005,000. He estimated that it would be possible with proper planning and rehabilitation to remove the reserves and still secure the current land value adjusted by the values which properties might change by in the future. The memo indicates that the analysis was prepared by Grightmire at the request of Jongeneel.

(2) A letter dated October 4, 1979, from Grightmire to Redfern, the President of CCL, (also a director of Standard) in which Grightmire forwarded a document designed to persuade CCL to make an additional equity investment in Standard. The document made the following disclosure:-

"However, substantial appreciation in land and aggregates values since first purchased are not recognized on Standard's books, and on a conservative basis these would raise the value of CCL's investment to $36,115.00 (= $11.47 per share) as follows:-

	$'000	Per Share
Standard's Shareholders' equity March 31/79 at book value	40,860	$6.49
Added value of aggregates reserves- 51.9 million tons of gravel @ 20¢	10,380
60 million tons of stone @ 5¢	3,000
	13,380	$2.13
Added additional value of land holdings	18,000	$2.85
Estimated break-up value of company	72,240	$11.47
CCL's share of break-up value	36,115	$11.47

Break-up value is therefore estimated at some 50% in excess of CCL's book value of $7.62 per share and 35% in excess of current market value of $8.50 per share."

- (3) Information, including valuations, concerning the McCord & Company division of Standard, obtained and undertaken by CCL during February and March, 1980, as the result of Standard offering to sell its McCord division to CCL. This valuation showed an underlying value of $6.9 million as against a value on the books of Standard of $2.1 million.
- (4) At its meeting on May 8, 1980 (the CCL offer having been made the previous day) Grightmire presented to Standard's directors a document headed "UNDERLYING VALUES IN STANDARD INDUSTRIES LIMITED NOT INDICATED IN THE BALANCE SHEET". This document estimated the value of the fixed assets conservatively, according to Grightmire's evidence, at $141,942,000 as opposed to a March 31, 1980 book value of $61,427,000 thus estimating the value of the fixed assets at $80,515,000 over the book value. As noted above, two officers and directors of CCL, Redfern and Jongeneel, received this information as directors of Standard at the May 8 meeting.

With respect to the requirements of the take-over bid circular as set out in Item 16 of Form 31, we are of the opinion that the memorandum of June 9, 1976, from Grightmire to the Board of Standard advising that in his best judgment the current land value of Standard's property was some $32 million against a book value of some $10 million was a matter that was known to the offeror (CCL) through the interlocking directorship of Redfern and Jongeneel that had not been generally disclosed and which would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of the security holders of the offeree company to accept or reject the offer. We are of the opinion that the same is true for the letter of October 4, 1979, from Grightmire to Redfern which disclosed a break up value of $11.47 per share or some 50% in excess of the then book value of $7.62 per share and 35% in excess of the then current market value of $8.50 per share.

We are of the same opinion with respect to the document dealing with Standard's underlying values "not indicated in the balance sheet" presented to the Standard Board on May 8, 1980. Once again, this information is information that was known to CCL through the interlocking directorship of its senior executive officers Redfern and Jongeneel who were present at the Standard Board Meeting on May 8. In this connection it is worth noting that Redfern and Jongeneel were the executive officers of CCL who signed the certificate with respect to full, true and plain disclosure in the CCL take-over bid circular dated May 7, 1980. After being apprised of the document with respect to underlying values of Standard not indicated on Standard's balance sheet, Redfern and Jongeneel had an obligation under Section 90(1) of the Act to see that CCL amended its take-over bid circular to include the information as to underlying values contained in the May 8 document. We would note once again that this document showed an estimated value of fixed assets some $80 million over the March 31, 1980, year-end book value of some $61 million. In short, Standard's senior executive officers were estimating a book value some 130% greater than that indicated to the Standard shareholders by the Standard financial statements.

We reached the same conclusion as to the lack of adequate disclosure and lack of compliance with Item 12 of Form 32 of the Act with respect to the Directors' Circular. The May 8 internal valuation was information that had not been disclosed in the Directors' Circular which "...would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of the security holders of the offeree company (Standard) to accept or reject the offer."

It was submitted by Mr. Moore on behalf of CCL that the alleged deficiencies were for the most part internal valuations prepared by Standard's Chief Executive Officer, Grightmire. Grightmire testified in response to a summons issued pursuant to sub-section 12(1) of the Statutory Powers Procedures Act by the Director at the request of the complainant's counsel. We were impressed by Grightmire's testimony. There is no doubt that he is a highly respected figure in the building supplies industry and has been a very successful Chief Executive Officer of Standard. He was confident in the valuations he had given from time to time and pointed out that the opinions of himself and his staff had been tested over the years in the marketplace. There was no suggestion by any party that the valuations were not fundamentally sound and, as Grightmire stated, conservative. We cannot accept the proposition that Grightmire's valuations were not valuations as that term is used in Policy 3-37, the Regulations or item 12 of Form 31 because they were made "in house". We are of the opinion that the information and valuations passed directly and indirectly to CCL and were matters which ought to have been disclosed by CCL in its take-over bid circular with appropriate descriptions as to the source and circumstances under which the valuations were prepared. Similarly, the Grightmire valuation tabled at the Standard Board Meeting on May 8 was information which ought to have been disclosed in the Standard Directors' Circular and ought to have been the subject of an amendment pursuant to Section 90(1) of the Act to the CCL take-over bid circular.

There is an aspect of the failure of CCL to make the disclosure required by Form 31 and of the Standard directors to make the disclosure required by Form 32 that is of particular concern to us. That aspect is the role played by counsel to CCL and by counsel to Standard. The Board of CCL was advised as to the take-over bid circular by Messier and by Donald Cope ("Cope") of the Ogilvy, Renault firm of Montreal. Messier gave evidence of the due diligence procedures that he conducted with the sixteen-member Board of Directors of CCL and also gave evidence as to the advice he received from Cope with respect to the extent of the disclosure required. We do not intend to repeat Messier's evidence here. Suffice it to say that the due diligence procedures used were inadequate. Moreover, and even more serious, Messier's letter to the Director of May 1, 1980, was sent before he had complete replies from all of the CCL directors with respect to his "due diligence" enquiry. Messier did not check the files of any of the Directors who served on the Boards of both CCL and Standard, nor is there any indication that Item 16 of Form 31 was brought to the attention of each of the Directors of CCL and most particularly to the attention of Redfern and Jongeneel, the two interlocking Directors and the two men who were clearly in charge of the take-over bid. The Director relieved CCL from the valuation obligation imposed by Policy 3-37 on the basis of a letter from Messier that in the light of the circumstances in which it was made it was incomplete. As the Director testified, if he had been informed of the information that was contained in the complaint he would not have written his letter of May 2 but rather would have required an independent evaluation.

Although the Directors of CCL are entitled to rely on their counsel that does not excuse them from ensuring that Item 16 of Form 31 was complied with. This is particularly true of Redfern and Jongeneel who were the guiding Executive Officers of CCL and the CCL representatives on the Standard Board. They knew the truth of the matter, they knew of the valuations, and they signed the full, true and plain disclosure certificate in the take-over bid circular. Their conduct in this matter was reckless and although we do not intend any further action at this date, we would note for the future that such conduct could lead to the denial of trading privileges in Ontario or prosecution under the Act. We would hope that this case would serve as a warning to them and to others that in conducting the corporate affairs of public companies, and in acting as interlocking Directors of two public companies, they have a duty not only to this Commission, the shareholders of both companies and also to the investing public to take great care to ensure that both the letter and the spirit of the Act is complied with.

With respect to counsel to CCL, we would note that Mr. Moore was retained as agent for CCL by Messier to communicate with the Director with respect to Policy 3-37. Neither Mr. Moore nor any member of his firm had any part in the preparation of the CCL take-over bid circular or in advising the CCL Board, and none of the strictures that are directed at Messier and Cope and the CCL Board are in any way to be taken as reflecting on Mr. Moore.

The position of the Standard Board of Directors also gives us concern. R.D. Jennings, Q.C. ("Jennings"), Standard's long standing legal adviser, was present during the discussion when a decision was made not to disclose the May 8 valuation in the Director's Circular. Item 12 of Form 32, in our view, ought to have been brought to the attention of the Board. The decision not to disclose the valuation was in error. The failure assumes more importance in light of the fact known to at least two of the Directors, Messrs. Redfern and Jongeneel, that CCL had been exempted from the requirement of an independent valuation.

With respect to that disclosure it was the testimony of Donald G. Lawson ("Lawson"), a Standard Director, who testified of his own volition, that the May 8 valuation was discussed by the Board at its meeting on May 8 in the context of whether the valuation ought to be disclosed to the shareholders in the light of CCL's take-over bid. Lawson testified as to his sincere concerns about publishing internal valuations. He did say that he thought the matter of the internal valuation ought to have been placed before the shareholders either in a letter of opinion from the Standard Board or at the annual meeting and he had attempted to have CCL delay its take-over bid until that meeting had taken place. In that he was unsuccessful. Lawson also testified that he would have asked for an independent valuation to be supplied to the Standard shareholders if he had not been informed that the Director had given an exemption to CCL in his letter of May 2, 1980.

For the above reasons we concluded that CCL ought not to be permitted to proceed with their offer without making adequate disclosure to the Standard shareholders and without providing the Standard shareholders with an independent valuation. We also concluded that CCL, as a majority shareholder of Standard, had an obligation to ensure that all material facts were disclosed to the public with whatever explanations were necessary to allow informed evaluation of that information before trading could resume in the Standard shares. Accordingly, we ordered that all trading by CCL in Standard shares should cease until such a statement was made.

MAJORITY REASONS

This was an application under section 99(e) of The Securities Act, S.O. 1978, C.47, as amended (the "Act") for an order exempting ATCO Ltd. ("ATCO") from the obligation imposed under section 91(1) of the Act to make a "follow-up offer" to the remaining holders of the common shares of Canadian Utilities Limited ("CU"). The background to the application is as follows:

On May 12, 1980, ATCO entered into an agreement (the "Exchange Agreement") with IU International Corporation ("IU") providing for the exchange of common shares of IU owned by ATCO for 12,093,670 CU shares beneficially owned by IU. IU is incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland with its head office in Wilmington, Delaware, and is a holding company one of whose assets was 12,093,670 CU shares which constituted 58.1% of the 20,817,623 CU common shares outstanding. CU is a public corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada with its head office in Edmonton. It is also a holding company which, through its subsidiaries, purchases, produces, transmits and distributes natural gas and electrical energy primarily in the province of Alberta. ATCO is incorporated under the laws of the province of Alberta and is engaged primarily in the manufacture and marketing of a broad range of transportable industrial, institutional and residential structures. Each of ATCO, IU and CU are reporting issuers under the Act and their respective common shares are listed and posted for trading on The Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSE").

On the date of the Exchange Agreement, May 12, 1980, ATCO held no IU common shares. In order to obtain IU common shares to use as consideration for the purchase of the CU common shares held by IU, ATCO made an offer in the United States and Canada to purchase 16,205,517 common shares of IU at $17 U.S. per share. Because a very large portion of the IU shareholders are residents of the United States and the IU common shares are registered under section 12 of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "1934 Act"), it was necessary for the ATCO offer to be made in accordance with the requirements of the 1934 Act. Accordingly, the ATCO offer was made by a tender offer statement and a letter of transmittal prepared in accordance with schedule 14 D-1 to the 1934 Act.

The offer was made to all shareholders of IU, including holders of IU shares whose last address shown on the books of IU was in Ontario. (The tender offer was actually made by 94136 Canada Ltd. ("94136"), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of ATCO).

On May 14, 1980, ATCO and IU applied to the Commission for orders, pursuant to section 99 of the Act, (a) declaring the ATCO tender offer to be exempt from the requirements of Part XIX of the Act, and (b) declaring the exchange by IU of its holding of CU shares for the IU shares to be acquired pursuant to the ATCO tender offer by ATCO to be exempt from the requirements of Part XIX of the Act.

Following a hearing held on May 15, 1980, the Commission ordered that the ATCO tender offer be exempted from certain of the requirements of Part XIX of the Act, subject to certain terms and conditions, and that a further hearing be convened on May 29, 1980, to consider:

- (a) whether the Act applies to the acquisition by ATCO of control of CU by the purchase of up to 12,093,670 CU shares pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement; and
- (b) if the Act applies whether it is not prejudicial to the public interest that the Commission grant an application by ATCO for an order that it be exempted from making the same offer for the remaining 8,723,953 CU common shares outstanding.

With respect to the hearing to be held on May 29, 1980, the Commission required that ATCO publish notice of the hearing in major Canadian newspapers setting out the question to be considered and informing the public that the information with respect to the hearing could be obtained either from ATCO or the Commission. Notice was published in twelve major Canadian newspapers across the country on May 17, 1980.

In addition to ATCO and IU, represented at the hearing on May 29, 1980, were Calgary Power Ltd. ("Calgary Power"), a company that had held discussions with IU in April and May of 1980 with respect to the purchase by Calgary Power of IU's holdings in CU as well as an equivalent offer to the holders of the remaining 42% of the issued CU shares. These negotiations were terminated on May 6, 1980. Also represented at the hearing was Gordon Securities Limited, a registrant under the Act, representing directly and indirectly over one million CU common shares. The TSE was also represented.

The first question to be dealt with is that of jurisdiction; the essential question being whether the Act applied to the purchase of ATCO of the 12,093,670 CU shares held by IU given the structure of the transaction as set out above. Counsel for ATCO argued that Part XIX of the Act only comes into play when there is a takeover bid as that term is defined in section 88(1)(k) of the Act. Section 88(1)(k) is in the following terms:

(k) "Takeover bid" means

- (i) an offer made to security holders, the last address of any of whom as shown on the books of the offeree company or other issuer is in Ontario, to purchase directly or indirectly voting securities of the company or other issuer.

ATCO is an Alberta corporation and IU is a Maryland corporation. The address of IU on the stockholder records of CU is Wilmington, Delaware. The requirement of section 88(1)(k)(i) is that there be an offer to shareholders whose address on the books of the "offeree company" is in Ontario to purchase voting securities for the company. "Offeree company" is defined in section 88(1)(g) as the company whose securities are the subject of the takeover bid. It was argued that the relevant facts to be applied to the terms of section 88(1)(k)(i) are that the only security holder of CU involved in the transaction is IU which is a Maryland corporation whose address as a shareholder of CU is in Wilmington, Delaware, and not in the province of Ontario. Accordingly, the definition of takeover bid is not satisfied. It was further argued that although ATCO's tender offer for IU's shares is a related transaction upon the success of which the Exchange Agreement is conditioned, that tender offer cannot lead to the conclusion that ATCO's subsequent acquisition of CU stock involves a takeover bid because the minority shareholders who would be the recipients of a follow-up offer under section 91 would be the minority shareholders of CU not IU and, in any event, all IU shareholders are receiving ATCO's tender offer.

Counsel for Calgary Power argued that the ATCO tender offer could not be separated from the Exchange Agreement. Paragraph 12 of the ATCO tender offer is titled "Purpose of Offer" and reads as follows:

The offer is being made by the purchaser to acquire up to but no more than 16,205,517 shares solely for the purpose of immediately exchanging all such shares with the company in return for the CU shares held by the company. The offer is not being made with a view to acquiring control of the company.

Paragraph 3.1 of the Exchange Agreement is entitled "Investment Purpose" and reads, in part, as follows:

ATCO is acquiring the Shares (IU shares) with the intention to exchange such shares with the Company (IU) for Canadian Shares (CU Shares) and not with a view to control of the Company.

The Exchange Agreement is further directly linked to the ATCO tender offer through paragraph 9.1(a) thereof which states that:

In the event that ATCO does not make the tender offer, or makes the tender offer but does not purchase the minimum number of (IU) shares pursuant to the terms thereof, then this agreement may be terminated by the company or ATCO at any time after July 16, 1980, by delivery of written notice of such termination to the other party hereto.

From the above, counsel for Calgary Power argued as follows. The ATCO tender offer is clearly a takeover bid within section 88(1)(k)(i) of the Act being an offer made to IU shareholders in, among other places, Ontario, to purchase IU shares directly. However, when one also considers the terms of the Exchange Agreement and the terms of the ATCO tender offer then the language of section 88(1)(k)(i) is broad enough to bear the interpretation that the ATCO tender offer is also a takeover bid by ATCO in respect of CU's shares. This is so because the language of section 88(1)(k)(i) has been broadened in the Act from the predecessor section 81(g) of the 1970 Act to state that a takeover bid may be made in respect of shares of a target company indirectly by way of an offer to security holders of another company. The words "or other issuer" which appear twice in section 88(1)(k)(i) and the words "or indirectly" in the same section are new to the Act and did not appear in section 81(g) of the 1970 Act. Paraphrasing section 88(1)(k)(i), the argument was that the ATCO tender offer was, in the circumstances of the Exchange Agreement, an offer made to security holders of IU, the last address of any of whom is shown on the books of IU to be in Ontario, to purchase indirectly voting securities of CU, CU being the "other issuer". In summary, the terms of the Exchange Agreement and the ATCO tender offer make it clear that the ATCO tender offer is an offer to purchase directly the voting securities of IU and is also an offer to purchase indirectly the voting securities of CU. Moreover, ATCO (with 94136) is clearly an offeror as that term is defined in section 88(1)(h). In summary, the ATCO tender offer and the Exchange Agreement must be read together to ascertain the reality of the transaction and when that reality is applied to the language of section 88(1)(k)(i) there is a takeover bid being made by ATCO for CU and Part XIX of the Act, and more particularly section 91(1), is applicable.

In making the above argument, counsel for Calgary Power submitted that in interpreting the provisions of the Act the Commission must be guided by the majority opinion of the Supreme Court of Canada in Pacific Coast Coin Exchange v. The Ontario Securities Commission (1978) 2 S.C.R. 112. Mr. Justice de Grandpre, at page 127, stated that:

Such remedial legislation must be construed broadly, and it must be read in the context of the economic realities to which it is addressed. Substance, not form, is the governing factor.

We are of the opinion that when one looks at the substance and not the form of the transaction in this case and when one applies the broadened wording of section 88(1)(k)(i) to that substance that what in fact took place was a direct offer by ATCO for IU shares and an indirect offer by ATCO for CU shares. Accordingly, the transaction is brought within the terms of Part XIX of the Act and the Commission has jurisdiction to consider the matter.

The second limb of the ATCO application is pursuant to section 99(e) of the Act in which it asks to be exempted from the requirement to make a follow-up offer to the remaining CU shareholders pursuant to the terms of section 91(1) of the Act. Since ATCO did not comply with the terms of section 89 of the Act making its takeover bid, it must be assumed that it was relying on the private agreement with fewer than fifteen security holders exemption of section 88(2)(c) of the Act. Under section 91(1) a follow-up offer is required only if there is a published market in the class of securities acquired and the value of the consideration paid for any such securities exceeds the defined market price at the date of the relevant agreement plus reasonable brokerage fees. In this case there is a published market in the class of securities acquired as CU is listed and posted for trading on The Toronto Stock Exchange. The relevant agreement is the Exchange Agreement and the relevant date is the date of that agreement, May 12, 1980. Market price, as that term is used in section 91(1) is defined by section 162(3) of the Regulations and is stated to be 15% in excess of a simple average of the closing price of securities of that class for each day on which there was a closing price and following not more than ten business days before the relevant date. Thus the ten trading day period contemplated by section 162(3) commenced on Monday, April 28, and terminated on Friday, May 9. Trading was halted for timely disclosure on May 5 and 6. The closing prices on the other eight days were as follows:

Date	Closing Price
April 28	21.50
April 29	21.25
April 30	21.75
May 1	21.75
May 2	22.50
May 5	no trading
May 6	no trading
May 7	20.75
May 8	21.50
May 9	22.00

The simple average of the above closing prices is 21.625 and the market price calculated pursuant to section 162(3) of the Regulations is 115% of 21.625, or 24.869 rounded out to $24.87.

It is next necessary to determine the value of the consideration paid for CU shares pursuant to the requirements of section 91(1). At a purchase price of $17 U.S. per IU common share, a conversion ratio of 1.34 IU common shares per CU common shares, and a dollar exchange rate on May 9 of $1.00 U.S. equals $1.1780 Canadian the effective price per CU common share was $26.83. Thus it will be seen that there is an excess premium of $1.96 per share or 7.9% over the defined market price. By comparison with the actual market price of $21.62 there is a real premium of $5.21 per share or 24%.

ATCO submitted that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to grant it an exemption from the obligation imposed by section 91(1) to make a follow-up offer to all of the other holders of CU common shares resident in Ontario at a price of $26.83 per share on the following grounds:

- (a) the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement are not abusive or unfair to the other shareholders of CU;

- (b) since the incorporation of CU in 1928, a control block of shares of that company has been held by IU. The transaction would alter the identity of the controlling shareholder but will not alter the size of the control block;
- (c) the effect of the Exchange Agreement is to transfer control of CU to Canadian hands providing an opportunity for a Canadian-based energy company to come under the direct control of Canadian shareholders.

An application under section 99(e) brings into play Policy 3-41 as that Policy was formulated to give guidance as to when and on what basis the Commission would be prepared to exercise its discretion to exempt from the requirement of a follow-up offer. Mr. Jackson, on behalf of ATCO, stressed that it was important that this Commission apply and follow its own Policy as that Policy indicated to the business community the principles that would be applied in determining whether or not a follow-up offer would be required. He submitted that the policy statement ought to be followed except where there were unusual circumstances or where the public interest outweighed the terms of the Policy itself.

This is the second major case brought before the Commission under section 99(e). The first case was In The Matter Of Newsco Investments Ltd. (OSC Bulletin, July 1980). We took the opportunity in the Newsco case to set out our view of how the policy statement ought to be interpreted and how it interacts with the terms of section 99 of the Act. We do not intend to repeat the terms of the Newsco judgment here, but we adopt what we said on that occasion. In summary, we indicated that the question is not one of the amount of the excess premium paid over the market price. Once an exemption is sought the Commission is free to examine the entire background of the transaction including relatively recent corporate history, all transactions in the offeree's company securities, the liquidity of the market and any other matters that it deems relevant to the exercise of its jurisdiction. As we noted, to concentrate on the size of the excess premium paid is to start from the wrong premise. Once an excess premium is paid a follow-up offer is mandated. Policy 3-41 does speak in relatively broad terms of the exemption-granting power but it also emphasizes that "the bias in good commercial practice is in favour of making a follow-up offer". To quote from Newsco ".... the policy goes on to state that where control is acquired through the private agreement exemption, it is anticipated that a follow-up offer will be made even though some or all of the conditions triggering the obligation of section 91(1) are not present. Thus the starting point is an expectation, and if section 91(1) applies, a legal requirement of a follow-up offer. The Commission may only grant an exemption where it is satisfied that ".... it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so". Thus in deciding whether or not an exemption should be granted, all the relevant circumstances are open for investigation.

Mr. Jackson submitted that the transaction here is not ".... clearly unfair or abusive to the remaining shareholders" and, moreover, the transaction is within one of the enumerated special circumstances of Policy 3-41 in that control of a Canadian corporation which heretofore has been held outside of Canada is being repatriated.

As to the transaction not being clearly unfair or abusive, Mr. Jackson submitted that the word abusive means oppressive or wrongful and that there are no circumstances here that would indicate any oppression or wrongdoing towards the minority shareholders of CU. As to the term unfair, it was submitted that a transaction cannot be seen to be unfair simply on the basis of a premium as that would render the term meaningless in the context of the purpose to be served by the policy statement. In other words, excess premiums over the defined market price are contemplated and the question is whether the transaction as a whole is clearly unfair or abusive. In Newsco, we looked at the number of shares outstanding, the recent trading history, recent financial transactions concerning the company and determined that in the special circumstances of that case, particularly the very thin trading market and the price paid by FP Publications Ltd. to move its control position in Ronalds-Federated Ltd. to 51.6% in May of 1979, less than 12 months prior to the resale which was the focus of the application. That is, FP Publications Ltd. purchased 227,000 shares of Ronalds at $20.50 per share through the facilities of The Toronto Stock Exchange and the Montreal Stock Exchange. The price paid by Newsco for the control block of Ronalds held by FP was 50% higher than the bid price through the Stock Exchanges.

We examined the trading ranges of CU stock in 1979 and 1980. The trading range has moved from the $18-20 area in 1979 to the $20-23 area in 1980. As to financing, IU purchased some 850,000 common shares of CU in December of 1979 as part of a sale of 1,250,000 CU shares to the public at $17.87. The IU purchase was to maintain its proportionate interest in CU. In May of 1978 there was a sale to the public of 1,000,000 common shares of CU at 14 7/8 and as part of this transaction, IU purchased 350,000 shares again to maintain its proportionate interest in CU. It will be noted that at a purchase price of $26.83, IU is realizing a premium of close to 50% on stock purchased in December of 1979 as part of a sale of over one million CU shares to the public.

Mr. Jackson argued that a utility like CU is constantly financing and that the public has had some 5 or 6 months to test the $17.87 offering price and that a new price level in the trading markets is in the $21 range. He emphasized once again that this is a widely held, heavily traded stock whose price has been moving up and there is every opportunity for any shareholder to sell his securities in a steadily rising market.

Mr. Jackson also stressed that this is a case of a major Canadian company which has been foreign controlled since its inception and is now being repatriated to Canada. This is exactly the situation contemplated in Guideline (a) of Policy 3-41 and that fact, along with the fact that the transaction is not clearly unfair or abusive to the remaining shareholders, dictated a favourable consideration of ATCO's application for an exemption under section 99(e).

Mr. Wright, for Gordon Securities Limited, argued that the policy of the Act is a follow-up offer and that the onus is on the applicant to show that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to grant an exemption. He stressed that between seven and ten thousand shareholders will not be the recipients of the same offer as that being made to IU. He argued that IU is taking to itself the premium that goes with the ability to control corporate assets and that that is a premium that ought to be shared with all the shareholders. As to national economic policy, Mr. Wright asked how a payment of some $320 million to a United States corporation could be in Canada's best national interest. He argued that the real control with respect to CU rests with the Public Utilities Commission of Alberta. Moreover, he pointed out that IU had already undertaken to the Foreign Investment Review Agency to reduce its holdings in CU to less than 50% and that IU had already set that reduction process in motion. The only reason that IU is now selling its entire 58% holding in CU is because it has been offered a large premium - a premium that is not being offered to the remaining shareholders.

Mr. Wright also noted that IU was in negotiations prior to the ATCO offer with Calgary Power for the sale of its holdings in CU which would have also involved Calgary Power in making a follow-up offer to the remaining CU shareholders. He argued that in preferring the ATCO bid, IU had preferred its own position as majority shareholder in CU to the rights of the minority shareholders of CU who would have received equal treatment under the Calgary Power offer. He also noted that in an application that was at the date of this hearing before the Alberta Public Utilities Commission, CU was contending that Calgary Power should not be allowed to bid for the minority position in CU. Mr. Wright had no hesitation in suggesting that ATCO and IU were influencing CU in its conduct before the Alberta Public Utilities Commission and that not only was IU not taking into consideration the interest of the minority shareholders in CU, it was so conducting itself through majority control of CU as to be grossly unfair to the minority shareholders of CU.

The case is a close one, but we are satisfied, by a majority, that the application ought to be granted. As noted above, there are more than 8 million shares of CU outstanding and it is a heavily traded stock. The price has been rising steadily over the past two years and a shareholder has ample opportunity at almost any time to liquidate his interest. The excess premium being paid is not on its face so large as to be clearly unfair or abusive to the other shareholders and the other factors present also do not indicate that the transaction is clearly unfair or abusive. It is true that IU acted on the basis of what was best for it as the majority shareholder of CU and not on the basis of what was best for all of the CU shareholders including the minority (but, arguably, on the basis of what was best for all its own shareholders). That raises the broad question of what duty IU owed as majority shareholder of CU to the minority shareholders of CU, but that is a question that, in most instances, is best left to company law and to minority shareholders who may pursue their remedies in other forums.

The Act and Policy 3-41 contemplate that the majority will be able to sell at a premium to a third party without a follow-up offer being made to the minority. The Commission, of course, will be vigilant to see that such transactions are not unfair or abusive to the minority when an exemption from the requirement of a follow-up offer is sought. On balance, we are satisfied that the transaction here is not clearly unfair or abusive to the remaining shareholders. Moreover, this is a case where a major Canadian company is being wholly repatriated to Canadian control. There is a significant difference between IU's position being reduced from 58% to 48% and being reduced from 58% to 0. In the latter case, control is clearly passing to Canadian hands and in the former case IU would clearly still be in control of CU.

Accordingly, we are of the opinion that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to grant the exemption asked for from the requirements of section 91(1) of the Act.

Vice-Chairman's Reason for Dissenting

It is with some diffidence that I record my disagreement with the conclusions reached by the majority of my colleagues. Indeed, on the issue of jurisdiction, I concur. All of the major actors have their securities listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange. There were substantial numbers of Ontario shareholders of the true target company, Canadian Utilities (CU). But subsequent events, in particular the bid made by Calgary Power Ltd., gave the CU shareholders the opportunity to dispose of their shares contemplated by the follow-up requirements of section 91. For this reason I refrain from any detailed observations.

The principles to be applied are reviewed in the majority decision. In the end result I was not persuaded that to grant the application would not be prejudicial to the public interest.

It is apparent, as a result of arguments presented in both this and the earlier Newsco application referred to in the majority decision, that O.S.C. Policy 3-41, published prior to the coming into force of the Act in an attempt to give some guidance in a very vexing area, has taken on a life of its own in the eyes of some readers beyond that which at least some members of the Commission anticipated.

DATED AT Toronto this 7th day of August, 1980

Commissioner Thom's Dissenting Opinion on the Matter of Jurisdiction

The circumstances of this application are unusual in that the applicant, Atco Ltd., comes before the Commission asking for an exempting order under s. 99(e) while denying that the Commission has jurisdiction to deal with the matter. The request is for an order declaring "the exchange by IU of certain common shares of CU for IU common shares to be acquired by Atco to be exempt from the requirements of Part XIX". The particular requirement of Part XIX which Atco seeks to avoid is s.91 which requires that under certain conditions a follow-up offer must be made when there has been a take-over bid. The question raised by the application is whether the exchange referred to constitutes a take-over bid by Atco as defined in s.88(1)(k).

Because the requirement of a follow-up offer would arise only if there had been a take-over bid, the decision of the majority of the Commission granting an exemption from that requirement necessarily imports that there had been a take-over bid. The definition in s.88(1)(k) to the extent that it relates directly to the facts of this case reads as follows:

(k) "take-over bid" means.

- "(i) an offer made to security holders, the last address of any of whom as shown on the books of the offeree company or other issuer is in Ontario, to purchase directly or indirectly voting securities of the company or other issuer,

- (ii) the acceptance by a person or company of an offer to sell voting securities of a company or other issuer and such acceptance shall be deemed to constitute an offer to purchase and the person or company accepting the offer shall be deemed to be an offeror, or
- (iii) a combination of an offer to purchase referred to in subclause i and an acceptance of an offer to sell referred to in subclause ii...".

The agreement evidencing the exchange was before the Commission. It does not use the terms "offer" and "acceptance" but it was in effect and was referred to as an agreement of purchase and sale. The material presented to the Commission gave it to understand that the transaction had been initiated by Atco and it would not be unreasonable to regard Atco as having made an offer to IU to purchase the shares of CU, the offeree company. It is common ground that IU does not have an Ontario address on the books of CU. It is apparent that the exchange transaction standing by itself does not fall within the ambit of subclause i.

The argument accepted by the majority turns on the words "the other issuer" in the phrase "... to purchase...indirectly voting securities of the company or other issuer...". CU is regarded as the other issuer. The argument might hold water if the words were "of another issuer" but the other issuer in the phrase quoted from subclause i above can only be the other issuer referred to in the earlier phrase in the definition "... the last address of any of whom as shown in the books of the offeree company or other issuer is in Ontario...". The words other issuer do no more than extend the take-over definition to apply to an issuer that is not company. "Offeree company" is defined in s.88(1)(g) as a company or other issuer whose securities are the subject of a take-over bid. "Issuer" is defined in subclause 1(1)18 as a person or company who has outstanding a security, and "person" under subclause 1(1)(28) means an individual, partnership, etc. but does not include a company. In short a take-over bid may be made in respect of securities other than the shares of a company.

This interpretation of subclause i does not permit CU to be identified as "the other issuer".

As for the contention that Atco offered to purchase indirectly the shares of CU, the facts are that Atco entered into two straightforward transactions. One was a purchase of shares under a tender offer made to IU shareholders - the other was an Exchange Agreement whereby it acquired CU shares from IU. There were unusual features to the Exchange Agreement. In the first place, Atco agreed to pay in counters, namely, IU shares, rather than in cash or with its own shares. The IU shareholders who were prepared to sell their IU shares to Atco knew that the sale would not be completed unless Atco acquired a certain number of IU shares. Finally Atco committed itself to sell its IU shares to IU and not exercise control over IU which would nominally be the result of its purchase under the tender offer. The transactions whereby Atco acquired the CU shares may be regarded as complicated but should not be regarded as giving rise to an indirect purchase.

If there is to be a take-over bid it can only be by virtue of subclause ii. To invoke that subclause would require a finding or an assumption that IU had offered to sell its CU shares to Atco. Such evidence as there was on this point indicated that this was not the case but if there is to be a take-over bid by Atco by virtue of the subclause it must be assumed that an offer was made to Atco. The particular feature of subclause ii, however is that on its face there need not be an association with Ontario such as is required by subclause i. It was submitted, however, that in situations where neither party to the transaction was incorporated in, resided in or had an address in Ontario, the subclause would nevertheless be invoked where there were Ontario holders of securities of the offeree company.

I am unable to accept the foregoing argument. Had the Legislature intended to enlarge the range of companies that might become involved in a take-over bid beyond that stipulated in the definition in the predecessor Act which is carried forward into subclause i of clause k, the appropriate action would have been to delete the words "the last address of any of whom as shown on the books of the offeree company or other issuer is in Ontario" in subclause i. A much more probable explanation of subclause ii is that it was included to supplement subclause i. Without subclause ii it would be possible for a company with a take-over intention to avoid becoming involved in the complications affecting a take-over bidder by arranging to have itself cast in the role of receiving rather than making the offer.

Notwithstanding that subclause ii technically is separate from subclause i, when read in the context of the whole definition is seen to serve two purposes. On the one hand it enlarges the meaning of the word "offer" in subclause i by deeming it to include acceptance and on the other it effects the consequential amendment to the definition of "offeror" in clause h of section 88(1).

To treat subclause ii as a separate and distinct definition of a take-over bid raises the broad question of how far a province can go in legislating with regard to transactions taking place outside its borders. The subject is discussed in an inconclusive manner in the background paper written by Anisman & Hogg to the Proposal for a Securities Market Law for Canada recently published by the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs of Canada. They say at d.3, page 147:

"... a province's jurisdiction is limited to persons, property or activities within its borders and that the existence of some element in the province will not necessarily be sufficient to support regulatory legislation that modifies rights outside the province or that creates extraterritorial duties".

With regard to take-over bids the policy of the Legislature of Ontario has been to restrict the range of its legislation to cases in which some at least of the offerees are within Ontario. This policy was expressed in two definitional paragraphs in the predecessor section 81, namely, clause c (now f), the definition of "offeree" and clause g (now k(i)). Clause c was not amended as it would have been necessary had it been intended that under clause k(i) there could be a take-over bid between an offeree and an offeror neither of whom had an address in Ontario.

Had I been of the opinion that the Commission had jurisdiction to entertain the application by Atco for exemption from the obligation to make a follow-up offer, I would have concurred with the opinion of the Acting Chairman that the application should not have been granted for the reasons given by him..

NOTICE

RESIGNATION OF ROBERT N. COCKBURN AS COMMISSIONER

It is with regret that the Commission acknowledges the resignation of Robert N. Cockburn, formerly one of its Commissioners, as at September 30, 1980. Mr. Cockburn, then a Director and Senior Vice-President of Merrill Lynch Royal Securities Ltd., in his capacity as Chairman of the Commodity Futures Committee of the Ontario District of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada, made a substantial personal contribution to the work of the Interministerial Committee on Commodity Futures Trading. The Report of that Committee was the foundation for The Commodity Futures Act, 1978. Upon his retirement from Merrill Lynch Mr. Cockburn was retained by the Commission as a Consultant to assist in the development of the regulations to The Commodity Futures Act. With the coming into force of The Securities Act, 1978, which provided for an added Commissioner with commodity futures background, on September 15, 1979, Mr. Cockburn was appointed to the Commission.

Mr. Cockburn resigned to accept the position of President of ContiCommodity Services (Canada) Limited. His good judgment and expertise in the commodity futures area will be missed.

NOTICE

RE: PREMATURE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF TAKEOVER
BIDS, MERGERS, AMALGAMATIONS OR OTHER CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING

The Commission has become increasingly concerned about the number of proposals for takeover bids, mergers, amalgamations or other forms of corporate restructuring which have been announced with a substantial period elapsing before definitive documentation issues or, on occasion, a follow-up announcement is made that the proposal has been abandoned or materially altered. The press release making the announcement frequently gives sufficient information to affect the market price of the securities of issuers named in the proposal. Substantial uncertainty is often created in the market place because of lack of detail.

Uniform Act Policy 2-12 requests that the Commission be advised of such proposed action on an "early warning" confidential basis. This enables the Commission to institute a stock watch program pending the time that definitive documentation is published. Only when there appears to be a leak of information with the market responding on the basis of incomplete or misleading information will the Commission request that an appropriate press release be made. Trading may be halted temporarily to allow this process to take place in an orderly manner. Apart from that situation the policy does not request that a public announcement be made.

The making of a statement that the party intends to proceed implies a present willingness and ability to carry out that intent. If the party making the public announcement is not in a position to make the definitive proposal shortly after making the press release, the making of the announcement will be considered premature and misleading.

It is emphasized that the Commission is anxious that issuers continue, as in the past, to give it early warning on a confidential basis. It is equally concerned that premature announcements, in some instances on what appears to be a "trial balloon" basis, not be made.

DECISIONS, ORDERS AND RULINGS

IN THE MATTER OF THE SECURITIES ACT, 1978

AND

IN THE MATTER OF 99139 CANADA INC.,
ATCO LTD. AND CALGARY POWER LTD.

Hearing: August 27, 1980

Present: Henry J. Knowles, Q.C. - Chairman
Harry S. Bray, Q.C. - Vice-Chairman
Geddes M. Webster - Commissioner

H.G. Emerson) Counsel to Calgary
J.F. Bankes) Power Ltd.

J.D.A. Jackson - Counsel to 99139
Canada Inc. (Atco Ltd.)

This was an application made on behalf of Calgary Power Limited ("Calgary Power") pursuant to section 123 of The Securities Act, 1978 (the "Act") for an order prohibiting 99139 Canada Inc. ("99139"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Atco Ltd. ("Atco"), from accepting any shares tendered in Ontario under 99139's takeover bid dated August 6, 1980, in which 99139 offered to purchase 50.1% of all outstanding voting shares of Calgary Power. The basis of this application was an order issued by the Public Utilities Board for the Province of Alberta ("PUB") on August 18, 1980, flowing from an application made by Calgary Power to the PUB on July 9, 1980. Pursuant to the provisions of section 52(2) of the Alberta Public Utilities Board Act, the PUB prohibited 99139 from taking up or paying for any shares of Calgary Power which may have been tendered or deposited under the August 6 takeover bid.

Under date of August 25, 1980, 99139 mailed a Notice of Extension of its takeover bid. In this Notice of Extension it summarized the events which had taken place subsequent to the mailing of its takeover bid including the fact of the PUB order of August 19. The penultimate paragraph of that notice states:

"The purchaser intends to comply fully with any order of any court or regulatory authority which is effective at the Termination Date of the Offer or at the time by which shares deposited under the Offer are to be taken up and paid for."

The Termination Date of the Offer is September 10, 1980. The offeror, under section 89(1)8 of the Act has an additional 14 days within which the securities deposited must be taken up and paid for or returned.

Counsel for Calgary Power made his submissions on two grounds. Firstly, he stated that it was in the public interest that we issue a cease trading order in Ontario to ensure effective enforcement of the PUB order. He cited Deacon v Chadwick (1901) 1 O.L.R. 346 at 351 (Divisional Court for Ontario) which stated,

"The Provinces of Manitoba and Ontario are independent provinces so far as the power to make laws in respect of the classes of subjects enumerated in sec. 92 of the British North America Act is concerned..."

"And to neither is any power given to pass laws having any operation outside its own territory and no tribunal established by either can extend its process beyond its own territory so as to subject either persons or property to its decisions."

He went on to argue that Ontario should give full faith and credit to a valid and binding order issued by a regulatory agency in another province where the order of that regulatory agency reflects public policy considerations and applicable statutory law that are directly related to and apply to the same proposed transaction that may be completed in Ontario. A discussion took place from which it became clear that there was considerable doubt as to whether the legal proceedings flowing from the PUB hearing would be completed on or before September 24, 1980. However, 99139's Counsel reinforced the more general statements of intent made in the August 25 Notice of Extension by an unequivocal assurance that 99139 would take up no shares in any of the several jurisdictions in which they were to be deposited, including Ontario, so long as the PUB order of prohibition was still outstanding and effective. Under these circumstances we could see no public interest in Ontario in issuing a cease trading order.

The second branch of the argument led us to a consideration of the language of subsection 1 of section 90 of the Act. Counsel to Calgary Power argued that events following August 6, 1980, had rendered the statements in the takeover bid, particularly the application as regards regulatory approval and relating to the jurisdiction of PUB, misleading as a result of the PUB's August 18 decision. In effect it was submitted that we should find that a "significant change" had occurred from the information contained in the takeover bid circular which ought to result in a requirement that an amended takeover circular be transmitted to all of the Calgary Power shareholders. Emphasis was placed on the fact that the Notice of Extension did not contain the kind of certificates required in the takeover bid circular itself. It was further submitted that there was no indication that the approval of the directors of the issuer-offeror had been obtained for dissemination of this new and amended information and that there ought to be compliance with section 97 of the Act. We were unable to concur in this submission.

The events of August 18, were clearly forecast in the August 5, 1980 application of 99139 for exemptions from certain takeover bid requirements. In the end result in its order of August 8, 1980, the Commission did permit the applicant, in the face of the application before the PUB, to include the right not to take up and pay for the securities if there should exist at the time for so doing any prohibition at law against taking up or paying for the shares sought. The reasons for this decision are reported in 1980 OSCB 359 (August Bulletin). The Notice of Extension of August 25 was specifically contemplated in the same order. The order of the PUB, therefore, in our view does not constitute a significant change in the August 8 takeover bid circular. Even if it was the Notice of Extension appears to us to comply with the notice of significant change or variation required under section 90(1). The discussion of that section did point out the fact that there is no form of notice requiring certification provided for in the regulation

This is a deficiency to which the Commission proposes directing its attention as well as certain other potential problems brought to light through the series of Atco-Calgary Power applications.

The request that we issue a cease trading order under section 123 of the Act was, therefore, refused.

DATED at Toronto this 4th day of September, 1980.

LATE FILING: INSIDER REPORTS

Under section 102 of The Securities Act, 1978, insiders are required to file a report with the Commission within ten (10) days after the end of the month in which they become insiders and, as to any change, a further report within ten (10) days of the end of the month in which the change takes place. Section 137(1) of the Act states that where the Act requires material to be filed, the filing shall be effected by depositing the material, or causing it to be deposited, with the Commission.

The Commission's attention has been drawn to the practice of a number of insiders of mailing the insider reports on or about the tenth day with the result they are late in filing and the publication of the fact of the trading is delayed for a further month. The Commission reminds insiders that their obligation is to file the report within ten days. Having regard to the vagaries of the mail service the reports should be mailed earlier or the insider should seek some alternative method of filing the report with the Commission.

The Commission has instructed its Financial Disclosure and Insider Trading Branch to monitor late filings more closely with a view to recommending appropriate action.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION FROM PREPARATION AND MAILING OF:

- (1) INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 - (2) ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND PROXY SOLICITATION MATERIAL

The Commission is of the opinion that, as financial statements are for the benefit of the securityholders of a reporting issuer, such persons should be given an opportunity to approve or disapprove of an exemption granted by the Commission pertaining to distribution of those statements. Therefore, in appropriate cases, the Commission will condition an order exempting the reporting issuer from the requirement to distribute interim statements on the approval thereof by a majority of securityholders at the next annual meeting. The Commission is to be informed of the result, in writing, within three (3) business days of taking the vote on this matter.

The Commission will take into consideration the fact that there is a controlling securityholder or group of securityholders of the reporting issuer and, therefore, the exempting order may be further conditioned by requiring approval by a "majority of the minority" of securityholders. The excluded majority may include, among others, insiders, associates or affiliates.

REQUEST FOR COMMENT

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT DISCLOSING CONTINGENCIES IN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Background

The auditing standards required or recommended by The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants as of November 1, 1980, will no longer require auditors, when satisfied that the accounting for and disclosure of contingencies in the financial statements is otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, to draw attention to contingencies that may affect the financial position of a company being reported upon by expressing a reservation of opinion in the auditor's report accompanying the financial statements.

Interim Policy

In view of the reliance that the readers of financial statements audited by Canadian accountants have come to place on the presence or absence of such reservations of opinion in the past the Commission, during an interim period within which it proposes reviewing this development insofar as audited financial statements required to be filed under The Securities Act, 1978, has determined that where there are contingencies that would affect the financial position of the issuer reported upon effective November 1, 1980, and until further notice, there shall be included on or immediately adjacent to the page on which the auditor's report appears Management's Report on such contingencies in the form set out below.

Form of Report

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

TO SHAREHOLDERS

Because of a change in the auditing standards required or recommended by The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the company's auditors are no longer required to draw attention to contingencies affecting the company by expressing a reservation of opinion in their report. These contingencies are fully discussed in Note * to the financial statements and you are specifically requested to refer to the information contained in that (those) note(s) when reviewing the financial statements to which this report relates.

DATED at * this * day of * , 19 * .

Request for Comments

This is an interim measure. The Commission requests comments from interested parties on the interim step taken to resolve the problem, including other alternatives designed to highlight such contingencies for the reader. These comments should be sent to The Secretary, Ontario Securities Commission, 10 Wellesley Street East, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 2H7, by December 31, 1980.

Comments received will be made available for public inspection unless confidentiality is specifically requested.

Through a take-over bid circular dated August 29, 1980 ("Circular"), Campeau Corporation ("Campeau") offered to purchase all of the outstanding Class A and Class B Common Shares and all outstanding Series A and Series B Preferred Shares of Royal Trustco Limited ("Royal Trustco") not already owned or controlled by it for $21.00 for each common share and $29.93 for each preferred share. The Circular revealed that Campeau had obtained a call from Unicorp Financial Corporation ("Unicorp") on 874,012 Class A Common Shares of Royal Trustco for consideration said to have a value equivalent to the offering price. This letter agreement (the "Call Agreement") was dated August 12, 1980. It was the intent of the Call Agreement that the purchase price should be satisfied by the issue to Unicorp by Campeau of a number of cumulative convertible non-voting Series B preference shares at the par value of $5.00 each of Campeau equivalent to such purchase price. On the third anniversary of their issue any Series B shares still held were to be mandatorily converted into common shares of Campeau at a price of $70.00 per common share. There were a number of other terms and conditions in the Call Agreement. In addition, the Circular referred to an agreement (the "Shareholders' Agreement") which was also dated August 12, 1980, between Unicorp and Robert Campeau Holdings Inc. ("RCH"), under which, on the third anniversary date of the issue of the Class B shares, Unicorp could alternatively require RCH to purchase the Class B shares or Unicorp could purchase a number of Campeau common shares from RCH equal to the number of common shares of Campeau into which the Class B shares were convertible at a price to be fixed by RCH. The Call Agreement also provided for a profit sharing arrangement under which, if Campeau terminated its offer without taking up any shares and Unicorp disposed of its Royal Trustco shares during the next 60 days, Campeau would share in the profit of any net aggregate price of over $16.00 per share.

The Call Agreement recognized that some problem might arise because of the requirements of section 91 of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 47, as amended (the "Act"). Subsection 3 of section 91 provides,

"Subject to any decision of the Commission under section 99, where a take-over bid or an issuer bid is made, all holders of the same class of securities shall be offered the same consideration and no collateral agreement with any such holders shall have the effect, directly or indirectly, of offering such holders a consideration of greater value for their securities than that offered to the holders of the same class of securities."

As well as the general exempting power granted to the Commission in section 99(e) to "exempt any person or company from any requirements of this Part where in (the Commission's) opinion it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so", two specific exempting powers in section 99 are relevant to the questions raised by section 91(3).

Clause (c) of section 99 permits the Commission to,

"decide for purposes of section 91 that a consideration proposed to be offered by an offeror is, or is not, at least equal in value to the greatest consideration paid under the relevant agreements".

Clause (d) of that section adds that the Commission may,

"decide for the purposes of section 91 that a collateral agreement or arrangement with a selling security holder is made for reasons other than to increase the value of the consideration paid to him for his securities and may be entered into notwithstanding that section".

Unicorp would receive not only the same consideration as all other shareholders but some alternatives including the Campeau Class B preference shares to which would be added the benefits perceived by Unicorp in the Shareholders' Agreement. Prima facie the consideration offered to Unicorp for tying up its Royal Trustco shares is of greater value to Unicorp (and any other shareholder in a like position) than the consideration being offered to other holders of the same class of Royal Trustco common shares.

The Call Agreement, under the heading "Alternative Call", dealt with the section 91 problem as follows:-

"(Campeau) and (Unicorp) believe that the effective price per share to be paid by (Campeau) for the shares under the foregoing arrangements is not more than the final bid price under the Offer. (Unicorp) acknowledges that (Campeau) may require exemption orders under section 99 of The Securities Act (Ontario) to that effect, because this Agreement may be construed by applicable authorities as a take-over bid to which section 91 of the said Act applies. If (Campeau) cannot obtain such exemption orders promptly after the commencement of the Offer, then (Campeau) shall have a call on the Shares, mutatis mutandis with the call described in paragraph 2 above, except that (Campeau) shall pay the purchase price of the Shares to (Unicorp) in cash, and Unicorp shall use such cash to buy such Series B Preference Shares for cash (instead of the share exchange for the Class B Campeau preference shares)."

Through a letter application made on their behalf by their solicitors, Blake, Cassels & Graydon, dated September 10, 1980, Campeau made the following applications under section 99 of the Act, for orders of the Commission,

"(a) exempting the Applicant from the provisions of Part XIX of the Act in respect of the Call and the Shareholders' Agreement; or in the alternative

(b) deciding for the purposes of section 91 of the Act that the cash consideration of $21.00 offered by the Applicant under the Public Offer is at least equal in value to the consideration to be received by Unicorp under the Call and the Shareholders' Agreement; and in any event

(c) deciding for the purposes of section 91 of the Act that the Shareholders' Agreement and the Call are made for reasons other than to increase the value of the consideration paid to Unicorp for its common shares of (Royal Trustco) and may be entered into by the parties thereto notwithstanding that section."

The Commission were impressed with a need for urgency in setting down the matter for hearing. The Campeau bid, if not further extended, would expire on Friday, September 19. The bid was being strongly resisted by the management of Royal Trustco. We were informed that an application had been made on behalf of Royal Trustco in the Supreme Court of Ontario under sections 241 and 198(3) of the Canada Business Corporations Act, S.O. 1974-1975, c. 33, as amended ("CBCA") for injunctions restraining Campeau from proceeding with the take-over bid. The application was to be heard commencing September 11. In the Commission's view it was essential that some reasonable notice of Campeau's applications be given, not only to Royal Trustco and the stock exchanges on which its shares were listed, but so far as possible to the Royal Trustco shareholders and their advisers. The Commission fixed

Monday, September 15, 1980, for the hearing on the undertaking from the applicant that, in addition to the usual wire service releases, notice of the hearing should be published in paid advertisements published in daily newspapers in as many population centres in Ontario as possible. This was done.

Royal Trustco responded to the notice of the Campeau application with a counter application through a letter from its solicitors, Fasken & Calvin, dated September 15, 1980. It advised that not only did it wish to resist the Campeau application but also made an application of its own under section 123 of the Act. The specific application was as follows:

" Royal Trustco makes application to the Commission for an order under section 123 of the Act that all trading in Class A and Class B Common Shares and Series A and Series B Shares of Royal Trustco, under or pursuant to the Offer, shall cease until such time as the Commission receives evidence satisfactory to it that the offer, the Share Purchase (Call) Agreement and the Buy/Sell (Shareholders') Agreement comply and are not in conflict with the requirements of Part XIX of the Act, in particular, sections 89 and 91 thereof.

The application for this order is made on the basis that the Offer contravenes subsection 91(3) of the Act in that:

- (a) the consideration to be received by Unicorp for its shares of Royal Trustco is not the same consideration being offered by Campeau to the other holders of the same class of shares of Royal Trustco; and
- (b) the Share Purchase (Call) Agreement and the Buy/Sell (Shareholders') Agreement constitute collateral agreements which have the effect of offering Unicorp a consideration of greater value for its shares of Royal Trustco than that offered to the other holders of the same class of shares of Royal Trustco."

Royal Trustco and the Royal Trust group of companies is Canada's largest trust company with branches extending from coast to coast. It offers a full range of services including the real estate business acquired for the shares now held by Unicorp. It also operates through subsidiaries outside of Canada, including its banking business in the State of Florida, U.S.A., referred to in the Circular. The Commission's concern in these applications is for the investors and in the credibility of the capital market system. Royal Trustco shares are listed for trading on the Toronto, Montreal, Alberta and Vancouver Stock Exchanges. The company is the result of the amalgamation of certain predecessor companies effected under the CBCA which became effective on November 3, 1978. At the Commission's invitation representatives of the Quebec and Alberta Securities Commission and the Companies Division of the federal Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs were present as observers throughout the hearing. As well as the parties recorded as appearing by counsel, one individual, Mr. Pinkus, appeared in person to urge that we let the $21.00 offer proceed.

On the grounds of expedition, the Campeau and Royal Trustco applications were heard in tandem. The substance of the issues between the parties in this hearing was the same, centering on the effect of the Call and Shareholders' agreements in the context of section 91(3) of the Act. The substantive applications for exemptions were made by Campeau. The question raised by Royal Trustco as to non-compliance with section 91(3) of the Act could be determined in the same proceeding.

Mr. Justice Montgomery concluded his hearing of the CBCA application on September 12. In view of the time constraints on the Campeau offer, the Commission believed it must commence to hear the Campeau applications even though, if His Lordship were to agree with Royal Trustco's submission and issued the injunctions requested, the proceedings before the Commission might become a nullity. On September 16, 1980, Montgomery J. issued some 70 pages of reasons and concluded,

"The applicant has failed to persuade me on any ground that the Bid is defective... The application for injunction must also fail."

His Lordship declined to deal with the questions placed before us, adopting the reasoning of Anderson J. in Forefront Consolidated Explorations Ltd. v. The Lumsden Building Corporation Inc. (1978) S.C.O. released December 1, 1978 (noted CCH Canadian Securities Law Reports, para. 70-117). In that case Mr. Justice Anderson after hearing an application for an interlocutory injunction arising out of a take-over bid said at page 13 of his reasons,

"Where sophisticated legislation of this type is in existence, together with a body skilled in its administration as is the Commission courts have been careful to consider whether the interjection of traditional remedies was necessary or desirable. A wide degree of latitude in the exercise of jurisdiction has been accorded bodies such as the Commission. By parity of reasoning it seems to me that the court should in such circumstances be slow to intervene with a remedy which the legislation does not provide, and that a motion for interlocutory injunction, summary in its nature as in its result, is not the time for such intervention.

Remedy by way of injunction has been traditionally withheld if the applicant invoking it had an alternative remedy. The position of the plaintiff on the argument before me was that in the circumstances of this case the plaintiff had no such alternative remedy. It was pointed out that the decision as to whether to exercise its power was reserved to the Commission and that it was not open to the plaintiff, proprio motu, to set in motion the machinery of the Act. I recognize that that is so, but in my view the protections and remedies afforded by the Act are sufficiently ample that it is not just and convenient that an interlocutory injunction should be made."

" I am in total accord with my brother Anderson. I do not think it proper for this Court to speculate on price when that very issue can be decided by the Securities Commission. The Carroll affidavit stated that an application would be placed before the Commission on September 10 for a determination under section 99 of The Securities Act to determine whether the Campeau-Unicorp agreement and the Unicorp-Holdings agreement have the effect, directly or indirectly, of offering Unicorp a consideration of greater value for its Royal Trustco shares than offered to other Royal Trustco shareholders under the Bid.

The Securities Commission, not the Court, is the appropriate forum for that determination."

This is yet another case of first instance under the new and revised provisions of Part XIX of the new Ontario Securities Act which came into force on September 15, 1979. Section 91 is new and is one of several provisions aimed at assuring fairness and an equality of treatment as between an offeror and offerees holding the same class of securities. In principle every shareholder is equal to every other shareholder of the same class. The theme is found in other sections.

Section 89(3), which is also new, provides,

"Where during the course of a take-over bid or an issuer bid the offeror pays or agrees to pay a price for securities higher than the consideration offered through the take-over bid or issuer bid, the take-over bid or issuer bid shall be deemed to be varied by increasing the consideration to the higher price."

This provision is designed to ensure that offerees holding the same class of security all receive the same consideration. Under section 90(3), if the offeror increases his offering price before the bid expires he must go back and pay the increased consideration to any offeree whose shares he has already taken up and paid for at the lower price. The last branch of these investor protections is found in section 91(3).

The Call and Shareholders' agreements were entered into in anticipation of the take-over bid for the purpose of assuring that Unicorp's 874,012 Class A Common Shares of Royal Trustco would be available to Campeau once the offer was made. The premise of the agreements between Unicorp and Campeau and RCH is that Unicorp will receive a consideration based upon the $21.00 offering price. It was submitted by Campeau that the collateral agreements did not have the effect, directly or indirectly of offering Unicorp a consideration of greater value for its securities than the $21.00 being offered to the other holders of the same class of securities.

The Commission is a business tribunal whose members are drawn from a variety of disciplines and experiences. As such it exercises its discretion in a disciplined way by applying the law to the facts before it in order to carry out the intent expressed through the legislation. The Commission's role is to act, in cases such as this, in the interests of investors generally so that investors, large and small, may move with greater confidence in the securities marketplace. Where the interests of the investors generally are not harmed, and the cost of compliance outweighs the benefit to investors, and the Commission is persuaded that to do so would not be contrary to the public interest declared through the legislation, it has discretion to grant exemptions. In this case a newly enacted principle was in issue. The onus was on the applicant, Campeau.

When the Call and Shareholders' agreements were examined it was apparent that Unicorp could receive advantages for benefits not offered to the other shareholders of the class. It appeared that Unicorp was seeking a tax free roll over of its Royal Trustco shares into Campeau shares. Also while retaining the opportunity to redeem its Campeau preferred shares for a consideration equal in amount to the offer price for Royal Trustco shares, it would acquire the right to convert into Campeau common shares on the basis that Campeau would set the price while Unicorp would have the option of converting or not converting.

The onus was on Campeau to demonstrate that the special features of the arrangement with Unicorp did not give rise to consideration of a greater value than was offered the other shareholders of the class. Had the hearing proceeded to a conclusion, the advantages to Unicorp could have been explored in depth. We had just started to touch on this aspect of the matter when on the morning of the third day Campeau's counsel announced that he was withdrawing Campeau's application. At that time on the evidence before it, the members of the Commission panel were unanimously of the opinion that whatever the value of the consideration proposed to be given to Unicorp for its Royal Trustco shares might be, Campeau had not established that it was not more than the consideration offered to the other shareholders. It was not material to determine whether the excess was large or small.

The withdrawal of the Campeau application left only the Royal Trustco application before the Commission. Mr. Howard, on behalf of Campeau, correctly anticipated our ultimate decision when he requested, after withdrawing Campeau's application, that if the Commission were prepared to make the cease trading order sought by Royal Trustco, the order might be conditioned to terminate if Campeau and RCH amended their agreements with Unicorp so that Unicorp would receive only the same cash offer as the other shareholders and no other collateral consideration. Mr. Howard then parsed the agreements in some detail to indicate the amendments that would be necessary in order to achieve this objective.

The Commission did not find it necessary, for the purpose of dealing with the Royal Trustco application, to call upon Royal Trustco for further evidence. Campeau did not oppose the application. If the objective of section 91(3) is to ensure that all security holders of the class receive consideration of the same value, Mr. Howard's proposal would meet that objective. After hearing further argument, and retiring to consider the evidence and the arguments, the Commission returned to announce its conclusions and the decision. These were as follows:-

1. The consideration which was proposed to be received by Unicorp under the Call and Shareholders' agreements was not the same consideration as that offered by Campeau to other holders of the same class of shares of Royal Trustco.
2. The Call and Shareholders' agreements constitute collateral agreements which have the effect of offering Unicorp a consideration of greater value for its Royal Trustco shares than that offered to the other holders of the same class of securities.

Accordingly, it was the opinion of the Commission that it was not in the public interest that the Campeau offer to the Royal Trustco shareholders should be permitted to proceed until this situation was corrected. The Commission ordered, pursuant to section 123(1) of the Act, that all trading by Campeau, its affiliates, associates and agents in respect of Class A and Class B common shares and Series A and Series B preferred shares of Royal Trustco should cease forthwith. This order would terminate if, not later than 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 18, 1980, there was filed with the Commission's Director and he shall have accepted acknowledgements and agreements signed by Campeau, RCH and Unicorp providing,

- (a) Unicorp, its affiliates, associates or agents will not receive and Campeau will not issue any Series B preferred shares of Campeau directly or indirectly in consideration for any shares of Royal Trustco sold by Unicorp to Campeau;
- (b) the sole and only consideration to be received by Unicorp, its associates, affiliates or agents in respect to the sale of any of the securities of Royal Trustco to Campeau shall be $21.00 cash per share or such other additional consideration as is offered by Campeau to all the shareholders of Royal Trustco of the same class;
- (c) that there are no collateral agreements or other understandings between Campeau, Unicorp and RCH other than those contained in the Call Agreement as amended by cancelling all references to the Series B preferred shares of Campeau;
- (d) the Shareholders' Agreement has been rescinded and revoked in writing by RCH and Unicorp; and

- (e) evidence is furnished demonstrating the financial ability of Campeau to complete the transaction with Unicorp by paying cash in lieu of the Series B preferred shares of Campeau.

In addition, and as a condition of terminating the order, Campeau must undertake to file a new material change report in compliance with section 74 of the Act indicating, as requested, the impact of a successful take-over of Royal Trustco on Campeau, its affiliates, associates or agents. This report was to be filed not later than 10:00 a.m. Friday, September 19, 1980.

DATED at Toronto this 16th day of October 1980.

NATIONAL POLICY NO. 32

PROSPECTUS WARNING RE: SCOPE OF DISTRIBUTION

Background

The Canadian Securities Administrators at their meeting on October 30, 1980, concluded that it would be useful to adopt the widespread practice of noting through a legend at the top of preliminary and final prospectuses through which it is intended to effect distributions in more than one jurisdiction that those securities may lawfully only be sold in those jurisdictions in which a prospectus has been accepted for filing. In addition, it was thought that the warning should also note that the securities could only be distributed in that jurisdiction by persons registered in the jurisdiction.

Policy

Where it is proposed to distribute securities through a prospectus in more than one Canadian jurisdiction the following legend shall appear at the top of the front page of the preliminary prospectus and prospectus:

"The securities offered for sale through this prospectus may only be lawfully offered for sale in those jurisdictions in which this prospectus has been accepted for filing and therein only by persons permitted to sell such securities."

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT DISCLOSING CONTINGENCIES AND GOING CONCERN CONSIDERATIONS IN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Background

The auditing standards required or recommended by The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants as of November 1, 1980, will no longer require auditors, when satisfied that the accounting for and disclosure of contingencies and going concern considerations in the financial statements is otherwise in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, to draw attention to such contingencies and considerations that may affect the financial position of a company being reported upon by expressing a reservation of opinion in the auditor's report accompanying the financial statements.

Interim Policy

In view of the reliance that the readers of financial statements audited by Canadian accountants have come to place on the presence or absence of such reservations of opinion in the past the Commission, during an interim period within which it proposes reviewing this development insofar as audited financial statements required to be filed under The Securities Act, 1978, has determined that where there are contingencies and going concern considerations that would affect the financial position of the issuer reported upon effective November 1, 1980, and until further notice, there shall be included on or immediately adjacent to the page on which the auditor's report appears Management's Report on such contingencies and considerations in the form set out below.

Form of Report

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

TO SHAREHOLDERS

Because of a change in the auditing standards required or recommended by The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the company's auditors are no longer required to draw attention to contingencies and going concern considerations affecting the company by expressing a reservation of opinion in their report. These contingencies and considerations are fully discussed in Note * to the financial statements and you are specifically requested to refer to the information contained in that (those) note(s) when reviewing the financial statements to which this report relates.

RIGHTS OFFERING: STAND-BY UNDERWRITING OR OPTIONS TO PRINCIPAL SECURITYHOLDERS

Background

The Commission has been concerned by some recent developments involving rights offerings where advantages appear to have been granted to principal securityholders or their associates and affiliates. In one case a principal shareholder increased its proportionate holdings when the rights offering was priced well above the market with the result that the principal shareholder was one of the few securityholders to take advantage of the offer. In other instances, a designated securityholder agreed to take up rights not exercised by other securityholders by way of a stand-by commitment. In certain of those cases the principal securityholder has been granted an option on additional securities, ostensibly as consideration for having undertaken such a stand-by commitment.

The Commission recognizes that principal securityholders will usually have representation on the board of directors of an issuer and may have access to accurate and current information concerning the issuer which provides such a principal securityholder with a more complete insight into the affairs of the issuer. The issuer may be perceived to be granting an advantage to a principal securityholder who has such an insight while similar opportunities are not made available to other public securityholders. It is important that confidence in the integrity of the capital market be maintained.

A rights offering pursuant to the exemption contained in clause 71(1)(h) of the Act enables an issuer to obtain funding without the cost and regulatory burden of a full prospectus filing. The desire of a principal investor to assure the success of such an offering, through an agreement to provide a stand-by commitment, while laudatory in itself, gives rise to concern that the same opportunity to enhance proportionate holdings is not offered pro rata to other similarly interested securityholders. The Commission is also concerned about the appearance of a special advantage when it is proposed to give one securityholder an option on shares which is not given to all securityholders in connection with a rights offering.

Policy

In the absence of special circumstances which can be demonstrated to justify alternative arrangements, the Commission will object to permitting a rights offering where,

1. a principal securityholder has agreed to provide a stand-by commitment to take up any securities unsubscribed for by other securityholders, unless a second stage right to take up any such unsubscribed securities is offered pro rata to all securityholders of the class who exercised their initial rights; or
2. options or other additional consideration are offered to any securityholder in connection with the rights offering.

Further, the Commission will enquire closely into any instances in which a rights offering is priced at or above the market.

Request for Comments

This policy is issued on an interim basis and will take effect immediately. Comments regarding this policy are invited and may be submitted to The Secretary, Ontario Securities Commission, 10 Wellesley Street East, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 2H7. Submissions should be received by the Secretary no later than 31st January, 1981. If no further amendments are made to this policy by 15th March, 1981, it will become final and no longer be considered an interim policy.

The Commission is of the view that private placements to principal securityholders, together with other forms of similar exempt distributions, involve certain of the same considerations included in this policy. Submissions are invited with respect to whether the policy ought to be expanded to include such other distributions.

Comments received will be made available for public inspection unless confidentiality is specifically requested.

BUSINESS AND ASSET COMBINATIONS: SHAREHOLDERS'
APPROVAL: MAJORITY OF THE MINORITY TEST

The Commission is of the view that it is important, in order to maintain confidence in the integrity of the capital market, that adequate disclosure be made of complex and multi-step transactions. Such disclosure should provide a global view of the transactions and a more detailed analysis of the effect of the transaction on the securityholders of each of the issuers involved in the transaction.

Certain complex business combinations are structured in such a manner that securityholder approval is not required by the applicable statutes although the effect of the re-organization or combination is akin to that of an amalgamation where securityholder approval would clearly be required. Issuers should give serious consideration to providing securityholders with an opportunity to approve the corporate restructuring contemplated. Where the possibility exists that management or a dominant securityholder may be entitled or be perceived to be entitled to some benefit or advantage as a result of the restructuring which is unavailable to other securityholders the Commission believes that approval of the majority of the "minority" securityholders is appropriate for each issuer involved.

Issuers proposing to proceed with such restructurings may wish to discuss these transactions with the Director in order to review the proposed level of disclosure and determine whether minority securityholder approval would be preferable in the circumstances. The Commission is prepared to review the Director's views with the interested parties.

JOINT HEARINGS WITH OTHER PROVINCIAL ADMINISTRATORS - CONDITIONS PRECEDENT AND COSTS

Background

Section 2(4) of The Securities Act, 1978, permits the Commission to "hold hearings in or outside of Ontario in conjunction with any other body empowered by statute to administer or regulate trading in securities". The provision, which came into force with the new Act, confirmed the precedent established by the Commission, prior to its passage, when the Commission sat in Montreal with the Quebec Securities Commission to consider parallel applications made to both bodies based on the same evidence. In October, 1980, the Commission sat in Edmonton with the Alberta Securities Commission. Earlier the British Columbia Superintendent of Brokers had sat with the Commission in Toronto.

As a result of these most recent joint hearings, the Commission believes it will be useful to indicate those circumstances under which it will consider applications for joint hearings. Because of differences in legislation and circumstance it will not be possible to suggest to the Canadian Securities Administrators that we adopt this as a uniform policy.

Application for Joint Hearing - Conditions Precedent

In determining whether to accede to a request for a joint hearing to be held outside of Ontario with one or more provincial securities administrators, the Commission will consider among others, the following matters,

1. Whether the issues raised through the applications and the evidence and arguments to be presented are substantially the same notwithstanding any apparent differences in the form of the applications before each tribunal or the specific legislation in each jurisdiction; and
2. that some urgent business necessity militates in favour of a joint hearing rather than two or more separate hearings with essentially the same evidence and argument presented to each tribunal; or

3. that the point is a novel one and that it is important to the business community and investors that securities administrators strive to achieve substantial uniformity in their interpretation of similar or identical provisions of securities legislation in each province.

Where the issue is also of interest to the Director, Corporations Branch, of the federal Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs in administering the Canada Business Corporations Act, the applicant, in addition to making the request for a joint hearing to the appropriate provincial securities administrators, may also request that the federal officer be invited to join in the hearings.

Place of Hearing

Where the applicant requests that the hearing be held outside of Ontario, the Commission will consider the preponderance of convenience to the majority of interested parties taking into account where the majority of the parties reside or have their principal places of business, where the witnesses reside and where it might be said, if it can be determined, the greatest public interest in the pending applications is.

Payment of Expenses

The Commission has concluded that where the applicant requests a joint hearing for its benefit, notwithstanding any general public interests perceived in the holding of such a joint hearing, the applicant ought properly to undertake to meet such additional costs before the Commission will consider leaving the province to participate in such a joint hearing. These expenses and witness fees will be precisely those payable under the schedules provided for the reimbursement of travel expenses for the public service and for witness fees and travel expenses in hearings before the Commission.

It is proposed that the government participants will be reimbursed for travel and related expenses in the ordinary course by the government and that the applicant will be billed by the Ontario Securities Commission for the gross amount of such expenses and witness fees attributable to the hearing.

Please note that this reimbursement payment should be made through the Commission's Accountant and payable to the "Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations, Advance Account" and not to the "Treasurer of Ontario" as is the case for fees exigible under the regulations to the Ontario Securities Act.

Request for Comments

This policy is issued on an interim basis and will take effect immediately. Comments regarding this policy are invited and may be submitted to The Secretary, Ontario Securities Commission, 10 Wellesley Street East, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 2H7. Submissions should be received by the Secretary no later than 16th January, 1981. In a take-over bid circular dated September 9, 1980 (the "Circular"), BCRIC Enterprises Limited, an indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of British Columbia Resources Investment Corporation (collectively referred to herein as "BCRIC"), made an offer to the holders of common shares of Kaiser Resources Limited ("Resources") to purchase for cash all of the outstanding common shares of Resources at a price of $55.00 per share. The offer remained opened for acceptance until 2:00 p.m., Vancouver time, on Tuesday, October 7, 1980. BCRIC stipulated that it would not be obligated to purchase any of the shares deposited unless at least 9,310,000 common shares were deposited. At the time the offer expired approximately 12,100,000 common shares of Resources had been properly tendered.

The Circular disclosed, commencing on page 12, that discussions commenced between BCRIC and representatives of Resources concerning BCRIC's interest in acquiring a majority interest in Resources on August 21, 1980. These discussions culminated on September 3, 1980, in a letter agreement between BCRIC, Resources and Edgar F. Kaiser, Jr. ("Kaiser"). This document is referred to as the "Letter Agreement". The Letter Agreement provided, among other things,

- (i) that BCRIC would proceed to make the take-over bid;
- (ii) that following the shares being taken up and paid for under the offer the directors of Resources would take such action as is lawful and appropriate to facilitate BCRIC designating a majority of the directors of the company and that BCRIC would appoint Kaiser to its Board of Directors;
- (iii) that Kaiser would tender his 893,630 shares under the offer;
- (iv) that Resources and Kaiser would use their best efforts to ensure a smooth transition to majority ownership and management of the company by BCRIC; and
- (v) for Resources entering into the three agreements which were the raison d'etre for this hearing.

The effect of the Letter Agreement was to make the three subsequent agreements an integral part of the BCRIC take-over bid so far as Kaiser was concerned. It was admitted by implication that these three agreements should be regarded as collateral agreements for the purpose of section 91(3).

Kaiser took the benefit of the three agreements through an Alberta corporation controlled by him, E.K. Holdings (One) Ltd. ("Holdings"), with the intent that BCRIC would permit the transfer of the Resources' name to Holdings. These agreements were entered in evidence. All were dated September 8, 1980. The first of these is headed "Sales Representation Agreement" referred to as the "Marketing Agreement" in the Circular. It was entered into between Resources and Holdings to come into force on the day that the Resources' shares are taken up and paid for under the BCRIC take-over bid. The second agreement, styled the "Securities Sale and Purchase Agreement", is also between Resources and Holdings under which Holdings agrees to pay Resources book value for all of the shares of Kaiser Oil (U.S.) Limited ("Kaiser Oil") owned by Resources. The third agreement, which was styled "Asset Sale and Purchase Agreement", was entered into between Resources, Kaiser Resources (U.S.) Ltd. and Holdings, for the sale by Resources and the U.S. company of a specified group of assets to Holdings. These were referred to during the hearing as the "Marketing Assets".

Section 91(3) of The Securities Act, 1978, S.O. 1978, c. 47, as amended, states,

"Subject to any decision of the Commission under section 99, where a take-over bid or an issuer bid is made, all holders of the same class of securities shall be offered the same consideration and no collateral agreement with any such holders shall have the effect, directly or indirectly, of offering such holders a consideration of greater value for their securities than that offered to the other holders of the same class of securities."

The Commission has only recently considered this subsection in connection with Campeau Corporation's take-over bid for Royal Trustco Limited. The disclosure of the collateral agreements in the Circular clearly raises the question as to whether the effect of those agreements, directly or indirectly, was to offer Kaiser a consideration of greater than the $55.00 being offered to all of the other Resources' shareholders for their securities.

BCRIC, Resources and Kaiser responded to the concern which had been expressed to BCRIC by the Commission's Director through an application dated October 6, 1980, made under section 99 of the Act requesting the Commission to make an order declaring "that the three agreements...did not have the direct or indirect effect and were not entered into for the purpose of increasing the consideration payable to Edgar F. Kaiser, Jr. and certain other selling shareholders for their shares above $55.00 per share, the consideration payable to the shareholders pursuant to the Offer."

Section 99(d) of the Act gives the Commission power to,

"decide for the purposes of section 91 that a collateral agreement or arrangement with a selling security holder is made for reasons other than to increase the value of the consideration paid to him for his securities and may be entered into notwithstanding that section."

The Commission was aware of the general public interest in this take-over bid. It was further aware the question raised was one that the principal parties to the agreement wished resolved before BCRIC took up and paid for the securities tendered in the event, as proved to be the fact, that they became obliged otherwise to do so by reason of the minimum number of shares of Resources being tendered. At the same time the Commission was advised of the concerns of the British Columbia Superintendent of Brokers ("Superintendent") which centered upon the same three agreements. The Superintendent was considering a hearing with a view to reviewing the same facts as those in issue in the present application. The two principal companies, BCRIC and Resources, are British Columbia corporations with head offices in that province. The preponderance of convenience would have been to have held the Commission's hearing on the application in Vancouver in conjunction with the hearing proposed by the Superintendent. Indeed the Legislature through section 2(4) of the Act authorized the Commission to hold hearings in or outside of Ontario in conjunction with any other body empowered by statute to administer or regulate trading in securities and to consult with that other body during the course of the hearing. The Commission was willing to sit with the Superintendent in British Columbia. However, it was unable to do so until after the last date on which BCRIC believed that it would be otherwise obligated to take up and pay for the shares tendered. Through the courtesy and co-operation of the Superintendent, indeed of all parties to the hearing, it was possible for and the Commission's hearing did in fact proceed concurrently with that conducted by the Superintendent in Toronto. While the evidence and arguments were the same, the question before the Superintendent was different. At the conclusion of this hearing, the Superintendent gave a separate decision under the British Columbia Securities Act.

The parties having agreed to a concurrent hearing in Toronto, the next question was how best to give notice of the joint hearings to other interested parties. With the concurrence of both the Superintendent and the Commission, notices of the hearing were published in daily newspapers in major population centres across Canada. The fact of such publication was given in evidence at the commencement of the hearing.

As the foundation for the original application, counsel to BCRIC filed a copy of the take-over bid circular, the Resources Directors' circular in which they recommended the acceptance of the bid to their shareholders and copies of all of the relevant agreements. Mr. Coleman, on behalf of BCRIC, emphasized the imperative necessity to Resources of continuing the services of Kaiser and his marketing team.

Mr. Coleman submitted that this was a business judgement case. Firstly, BCRIC believed that Kaiser had a special relationship with the Japanese customer-shareholders, who then held 40% of the outstanding voting shares and whose purchases represented 70% of the coal sales. Kaiser agreed to use his best efforts to persuade the Japanese not to tender any of their shares. In fact, the Japanese tendered some of their shares reducing their holdings to approximately 33 1/3%. Secondly, since BCRIC had no expertise in coal marketing, and since with the sale of their shares Kaiser and his marketing team might be expected to move on, it was essential to BCRIC to retain their services. BCRIC were not only prepared to pay a generous price for the Resources' shares but deemed it essential to retain the services of the Kaiser coal marketing team for the benefit of Resources.

Kaiser bargained for the asset package purchased by Holdings for cash from Resources, the purchase of Kaiser Oil from Resources, and a marketing agreement adequate to compensate Kaiser for the services of both him and his marketing team. The issue before the Commission was not as to the wisdom or business judgement of BCRIC in making a take-over bid for Resources at that price burdened or benefitted by the collateral agreements, whatever the view might be, but rather whether, in the end result, Kaiser was to receive indirectly a consideration for his shares through the collateral agreements higher than that received by the other common shareholders. If so, the next question to be determined was whether these arrangements were made so far as BCRIC was concerned for reasons other than to increase the value to be paid to Kaiser for his Resources' shares. The Commission concluded that BCRIC agreed or acquiesced to the collateral agreements to assure themselves of Kaiser's coal marketing services.

As to the fairness of the prices to be paid to Resources for the marketing assets and Kaiser Oil, at the conclusion of the hearing the Commission was advised that the three parties present and represented, that is BCRIC, Resources and Holdings (Kaiser), to the end that the Commission, the Superintendent, and the independent Resources' shareholders should be persuaded that Kaiser was paying fair value for these assets, had agreed that the asset package and Kaiser Oil would be valued by an independent firm of chartered accountants. This firm would offer its opinion as to the fair market value of those assets as at September 8, 1980, the date of the agreements. Allowing for reasonable differences of opinions Holdings was prepared, if those valuations should exceed in the aggregate the prices agreed to be paid by more than 10%, to pay the difference between the aggregate of the prices agreed to be paid and the aggregate appraised values. As to the marketing agreement, which in its term was for four years, BCRIC and Kaiser agreed that it could be terminated unilaterally on 90 days' notice by BCRIC.

At this point BCRIC asked to withdraw their application and substitute an application under section 99(e) of the Act. The amendments proposed to the agreements could be viewed as "significant variations" to the take-over bid under section 90 of the Act. This, in turn, would require the mailing of the notice of variation to all the Resources' shareholders, establishing the date of the mailing as the new date of the offer giving a further 10-day withdrawal right to shareholders who had already tendered. Mr. Coleman submitted that the section 91(3) question would be resolved once the agreements were amended. Accordingly, their application could be abandoned. In order to pursue the application as originally framed, BCRIC felt that it would be necessary to explore the details of the Japanese contracts and the relationship between Kaiser and these customers. The Commission still found it necessary to address the section 91(3) question in order to determine whether granting application for the exemption from section 90 made under section 99(e) would not be prejudicial to the public interest.

The only person appearing to oppose the application was Irwin Miller, a BCRIC shareholder. Mr. Miller offered an ingenious argument but, in the end result, his only real question was the price offered by BCRIC for the Resources' shares. The wisdom or otherwise of the offer from the perspective of the BCRIC shareholder was not in issue at this hearing. Our focus was on the Resources' shareholders and whether they were being dealt with fairly in light of the collateral agreements entered into by Resources in anticipation of a successful take-over bid by BCRIC.

In the end result the Commission concluded that the Resources' shareholders were being dealt with fairly and that it was not contrary to the interests of the Resources' shareholders to permit the bid to proceed. The amendments proposed assisted it to reach this conclusion. While the evidence was sparse, consisting of the documents filed and the statements made by counsel, the Commission found that the collateral agreements were entered into by or with the acquiescence of BCRIC for reasons other than to increase the value of the consideration paid by BCRIC to Kaiser and his associates for their Resources' shares. Accordingly, on the condition that the agreements were amended on the terms proposed, the Commission ordered that BCRIC be exempted from the requirements of section 90 of the Act.

Subject to the terms of the cease trading order previously issued by the Commission directed to certain insiders of Resources and coupled with the declaration of the Superintendent given immediately prior to our decision that he found no grounds for a cease trading order under the British Columbia Securities Act there was no further Ontario regulatory impediment to BCRIC completing the offer by taking up and paying for the shares tendered.
